

Lose Todo (Know it All)

Attorney Odeim is honored and appreciated for having the opportunity of a new trial for Dadlam. The least he suspects is that the award contains further reasons. The award is not for the benefit of Odeim, but for Tolerance, who is hidden in a corner of the dark office, from where he carefully observes the attorney falling into the trap. The face of the ugly creature, has a horrible smile, listening to the Evilest of evils say:

“Let's toast to the new trial.”

Tolerance's double plan has come into action! The first phase is to trick the attorney into believing that a new trial has been granted for Dadlam. The second phase is to deceive Dadlam into believing in the lie of a new trial and voluntarily surrendering the evidence brought from the Garden of Wisdom. The ugly creature with a reptile face, in a low tone, said to himself:

“Everything is going as planned!”

After the meeting with the Evilest of evils, the attorney met with the five Advisors who are going to the world in search of the four answers: They are:

One: When will God pour out His Spirit?

Two: Where will God pour out His Spirit?

Three: How will God pour out His Spirit?

Four: On whom will God pour out His Spirit?

Truth mixed with lies. Truth: Preparing an effective strategy, to neutralize the harmful effects of the outpouring of the Spirit of God, is associated with answering the four questions. Lie: In the world they will find the right answer to the four questions. Based on this lie, the five Advisors went out into the world in search of answers. They are:

1. Philosopher Lose Todo (LT).
2. Doctor Nose Nada (No-no),
3. Engineer Casi Puedo (CP).
4. Professor Creo Saber (CS).
5. Scientist Todoes Casualidad (Happenstance).

They were granted a week to complete their investigation.

It has been a week since the groups went around the world in search of the four answers. Once the time granted was completed, the leaders of each group presented themselves to the Room of Hidden Secrets to report their findings. Attorney Odeim knows that each group has had its ups and downs during the investigation, but he trusts that they will bring answers to the four questions. An unpleasant surprise awaits him!

Unlike the emergency meeting, which the room was empty, this time it is full. The immense room is crowded by the management of THE CONSORTIUM. They are sitting in the room according to their ranks. The area assigned to management, of the powerful company, is divided into four groups.

In the first row, sitting on thrones, are the Rulers. These entities belong to the "high management" of the company. The next three rows are reserved for the Authorities. They are the "intermediate management" of the company and are sitting in comfortable and wide seats. Although they are not thrones, these dark red seats look elegant and very refined. All the other ranks, a total of twenty, are reserved for the Powers. They are the "lower management" and are sitting in hard and uncomfortable wooden seats.

Behind the Powers, standing in the back of the room, a multitude of demons. These horrible spiritual entities, who do not have a physical body, are the foremen of the powerful enterprise. This creepy group of demons are known as "Forces of evil in the heavenly regions."

The atmosphere in the room is tense because of the rumor related to the outpouring of the Spirit of God. The twelve members of the High Council are sitting on the high stand and Tolerance is in the Dark Zone. The Evilest of evils hit the desk with his mallet and asked.

“Who will give the first report?”

Attorney Odeim approached the podium and replied:

“The philosopher Lose Todo is responsible for the first report.”

When they said his name, the two guardians dressed in their radiant armor entered the room accompanying the philosopher. His gray and messy hair, combined with his bad taste when dressing, adds a distinguished touch to his intellectual image. Upon entering the living room, the tense atmosphere became electrifying. The attendees of the meeting welcomed him with a loud and warm applause. After going up to the witness area, the attorney told him:

“Please identify yourself and say the purpose of your investigation.”

“My name is Lose Todo.”

Odeim, very hopeful in the results of his friend's investigation, asked:

“What was your responsibility?”

“I was in charge of investigating the atheists.”

The issue of atheists is very valuable and important for demons. They are the ones who produce the most negative energy. THE CONSORTIUM is very satisfied with the growth of "atheism" in the world. According to the statistics of the powerful company, the percentage of atheists continues to grow year after year. The good work of the DC division (deceive and confuse) has made many young people, trapped by the enemy's smokeballs, behave like atheists.

Each Advisor must submit a written report, in which they give a summary of what has been investigated and its recommendations. A copy of the report, entitled "The Atheists", was delivered to each member of the High Council and to the Attorney. Odeim, going through the report, asked:

“What can you tell us about atheists?”

“I divide the atheists into two groups.”

The lawyer interested in clarifying the division of atheists asked:

“What are those two groups?”

The philosopher with a smile of satisfaction replied:

“Intellectuals... and... those who use "evil" as an excuse to reject God.”

The report points out that "intellectuals", out of prestige, proclaim themselves atheists. When a university professor or a scientist declares himself in favor of God, the world accuses him of having a closed mind and loses credibility. They are defamed, humiliated, and pointed out as “religious people”. Those who are considered “religious” are questioned of their academic and intellectual level and are seen as religious people. On the other hand, if the university professor or scientist declares himself an atheist, it is considered “undeniable evidence” of their high intellectual level. The attorney asked:

“Which of the two groups is the largest?”

“Those who use "evil" as an excuse to reject God.”

The confusion that humans have, in relation to evil, is beneficial for THE CONSORTIUM. Smokeballs, created by the DC division, have managed to confuse humans. It is a mistake to think that evil is the opposite of good! The reality is that evil is the absence of God in the heart of man. The fact that humans do not know this truth benefits demons. In his desire to honor those who deserve it, the philosopher said:

“The DC division has done an excellent job... filling the minds of atheists with shrews.”

“What is the result of a mind full of shrew?”

Laughing out loud, the philosopher said:

“It makes them think that God created evil.”

Manipulated by THE CONSORTIUM, atheists question the existence of evil, as an excuse to deny God. They are completely wrong! The atheists, in their confusion, state that evil exists because God does not exist. Serious mistake! Evil and God are like oil and water, they don't mix. The reality is that evil exists because it benefits the kingdom of Darkness. Smokeballs confuse the atheist and prevent them from realizing the true reason why evil exists. Evil is the result of a heart without God.

Changing the cheerful tone and using a tone that reveals concern, the philosopher said:

“Currently, two of the most important theories of atheism are collapsing.”

These words penetrated deep into the attorney and caused nervousness. He asked:

“What are those two theories?”

“The first... has to do with... the "Great Explosion".”

“What about the second one?”

“The "Evolution".”

In his report, the philosopher explained that both theories have "coincidence" in common. The Great Explosion tries to explain that coincidence is responsible for the perfection of the universe and its wonderful harmony. The same goes for Evolution, this stubborn theory denies God and his wonderful plan. Both theories are a monument to the stubbornness and obstinacy of humans. The perfection that is exhibited in the universe and the complexity of life is not the product of coincidence, but convincing evidence of a wonderful and perfect PLAN.

The atheists in their stubbornness resist accepting what the GREAT BOOK declares: "In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. Like clothing you will change them, and they will be discarded. But you remain the same, and your years will never end." (Psalms 102:25-27).

Both theories, disguised as human wisdom, benefit THE CONSORTIUM. It is not convenient for these demons that humans discover the truth. The reality is that they are foolish! The GREAT BOOK speaks of them: "Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools" (Romans 1:22). Talking about atheists... is a pleasant topic... among demons. The pleasant atmosphere became tense when the philosopher revealed a horrible secret. He said:

“There is a traitor among us.”

Because of his betrayal, as explained by the philosopher, many atheists are changing their minds and are searching for God.

"Do you want to know the name of the traitor?" the philosopher emphasized in an aggressive tone.
