

The three ORIGINS

THE CONSORTIUM from very early on, in the history of humanity, commissioned the DC (deceive and confuse) division to place smokeballs around the concept... the three ORIGINS. In his investigation, in search of an answer to the four questions, the philosopher discovered... a horrible fissure. This crack, in the work carried out by the DC division, is allowing many humans to gain knowledge of the three ORIGINS. A good example of this truth is Anthony Flew, who was the most famous atheist in the world.

The reality is that the DC division is not as powerful as many demons claim. The philosopher Lose Todo, in his report, points out that the security measures established by the dangerous division have many weaknesses. The horrible reality is that many atheists are deserting, because of the three ORIGINS. This news caused enormous confusion among those attending the meeting and shouts of protest invaded the room.

The leader of the High Council used his wooden mallet to hit his desk hard, with the intention of controlling the disorder. Faced with the inefficiency of the "mallet", the evilest of all of them got up from his seat, and cried out loudly:

“Enough!”

The chilling scream shook all those attending the meeting. Immediately the screaming and the boos stopped. Upon regaining control of the meeting, the leader pointed to the philosopher and in his ugly voice said:

"Please explain."

The philosopher «Lose Todo», a little confused with the question asked:

“Explain what?”

“The comment... that atheists are deserting.”

"It's not a comment... it's a reality," the philosopher clarified.

His investigation brought to light a truth unknown to demons. In the spiritual world, as in the physical world, the news is manipulated. When a Christian behaves like an atheist, the news is spread throughout the second heaven. Everything changes when an atheist becomes a Christian. The news is manipulated to go unnoticed. The DC division, in addition to deceiving humans, also has the task of deceiving demons. The philosopher, upset with the subject, said:

“The Cash Cow of THE CONSORTIUM has begun to "disintegrate".”

This news is hurtful, offensive, and alarming, for demons.

The CONSORTIUM is a company that operates in the physical world but has spiritual interests. Like any company in the world, this alliance of corporations has a product or service that is considered "Cash Cow". The term applies to the product that generates the most income for the company. It is something like the jewel in the crown or the hen with the golden eggs of the business. Those that contribute the most income to THE CONSORTIUM are atheists, since they produce negative energy, at industrial levels.

Using a solemn tone, the philosopher repeated with sadness:

“The atheists are deserting.”

These short words stirred up the hornet's nest again. The prompt intervention of the vilest of all of them prevented the crowd from taking control of the meeting, with their boos. Once again, the leader of the High Council, standing next to his seat, confronted the philosopher.

“Do you have any evidence to support your claim?”

"Yes, I have it," the philosopher said as he opened his report.

In the report, there are two chapters, dedicated to atheism deserters. One of the deserters is Anthony Flew and the other is Josh

McDowell. Anthony has to do with the "three ORIGINS" and Josh McDowell has to do with discovering the truth. The GREAT Book reveals: "You will know the truth and the truth will set you free" (John 8:32). In his attempt to prove that Jesus Christ is a fake... Josh confronted the truth... and the truth set him free. The philosopher said:

“These two atheists, pride of THE CONSORTIUM, had an encounter.”

"An encounter with whom?" the attorney asked.

Wrinkling his face, as if he's drinking a purgative, he said:

“An encounter with God's mercy.”

When something similar happens in the world, the powerful company uses smokeballs to hide the truth, and keep demons deceived. The truth is that God is in control! As soon as these two atheists had their encounter with God, their lives changed forever. Both deserted atheisms to join Christianity.

This truth scares, bothers and mortifies demons.

The philosopher's report reveals that Anthony Flew was the most famous "atheist" of the 20th century. He was born in England in 1923 in a Christian home, his father being a minister of the Methodist Church. From a very young age, Anthony showed himself to possess privileged intelligence. This young man, despite being the son of a pastor, had his spiritual eyes closed. He received a Christian education that allowed him to know Jesus Christ intellectually, but not personally. His intellect took him away from humility and brought him closer to arrogance. This young man became the pride of THE CONSORTIUM.

Anthony, full of arrogance, superiority and pride mocked religious issues because he considered them against "reason." He made reasoning his "god" and at the age of 15 he proclaimed himself an atheist. His excessive appreciation, for reason, made him turn away from God when he was very young. It is interesting to note that the Lord never departed from him and did not take into account his mockery. One day, something unexpected happened, the atheist had an encounter with "the three Origins." From that moment on, his atheism collapsed!

According to the report, it is never too late to enjoy God's mercy. At the age of 81 he became aware of the three "ORIGINS". Everything changed in 2004! In his old age, his spiritual eyes were opened.

From that moment on, he stopped being an atheist and died as a Christian.

The three ORIGINS are related to the laws of nature, life and the universe. These laws are not the product of coincidence, but of an extremely intelligent mind, which everything it does has a magnificent purpose.

The laws of nature: They are based on mathematics and not coincidence. The natural order is governed by mathematical laws that humans did not invent but discover. These laws existed long before man was created and are evidence of an "intelligent design."

The laws of life: They completely rule out coincidence. It is one thing to have physical laws, which allow the existence of life; and another thing is the appearance of life itself. We are not talking about any kind of life, but about intelligent life. Trying to explain life without giving God credit requires a fertile imagination and a stubborn attitude.

The laws that govern the Universe: They expose their perfection and harmony. The cosmos is convincing evidence of God's greatness. Throughout the Universe, God reveals his eternal power, and his divine nature. It is written: "For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So, they have no excuse for not knowing God." (Romans 1:20).

The universe reveals the existence of an "intelligent design".

To speak of "the three ORIGINS" is to accept the existence of an "intelligent design" responsible for all creation. This statement scares the demons. THE CONSORTIUM is worried because their former ally, "science," has betrayed him. Those who previously exalted the position of the evolutionists, are now questioning it. Faced with this reality, atheists have begun to diminish.

The DC division, with its smokeballs, has managed to get many humans to ignore the three ORIGINS.

The second case, presented in the report, mentions the atheist, Josh McDowell. A person full of bitterness, doubts, disbelief, and lack of love. He was born in "Union City", Michigan in 1939. During his childhood and youth, he had trouble feeling valued and loved. His experiences were sad and painful. The relationship with his alcoholic and abusive father contributed greatly to his low self-esteem. His father had a farm, and one of his assistants sexually abused Josh. This horrible experience left deep scars on this young man and helped him grow up with the fading idea that he was unworthy of being loved by others. At that time, Josh blamed God for the "evil" of the world and for the evil experienced in his own flesh.

As he grew up, he moved away from the Lord and became an agnostic atheist. A kind of atheist who believes that God is far away and has no control over his creation. Josh's atheism went into crisis during his university studies. In one of his classes, the teacher asked the students to identify a topic, and prepare a writing. He selected Jesus Christ as his theme. His investigative work was intended to expose the falsity of Christianity, but what he discovered changed his destiny. God is closer than he thought and is in control of his Creation! The atheist became a Christian. "Evidence that Requires a Verdict" was the title of his university writing. In 1972 it was published and became one of the best-selling titles.

What scares demons is that Josh McDowell is no exception to God's mercy. He is available to everyone, including atheists! This truth related to the "availability of God"; is uncomfortable, displeased and angered the inhabitants of the kingdom of darkness.

The attorney is frustrated by the philosopher's report. It wasn't what he expected! He did not talk about the four questions but focused on the fact that atheists... are in danger. When he concluded his report, a strong boo was heard, as he descended from the platform. The two guardians, dressed in medieval armor, escorted him out of the room.

The same soldiers entered escorting the doctor to the stage of the witnesses. Unlike the philosopher, who is always poorly dressed, the doctor Nose Nada dresses elegantly. He wears a white robe over his shirt. He has his stethoscope on his neck. Although he has an athlete's body, he is lame, deaf and uses a bull horn as an auditory device. Doctor Nose nada, whose nickname is No-no, was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

There are rumors that the "doctor" discovered the "outpouring of the Spirit."
