

The Evilest of evils

The main leader of the High Council holds the title of "The Evilest of evils" his name is Master Nefarious. Only entities of perverse thinking and morbid attitudes qualify for such an important position. It gives him great satisfaction, to move humans away from good, and guide them to evil. A depraved being, with a dark heart, who is pleased with the calamities and hardships of humans. He is cruel, insensitive and rejoices with the pain of others. He is immune to compassion and mercy. His ferocity pales in the face of his brutality. Ungodliness satisfies him. Most of the Powers admire him for his lack of compassion toward the suffering of others. His legendary atrocities have earned him the title of bloodthirsty.

The members of the High Council wear their long hooded black robes and pointed hats on their heads. The fabric of the hat covers the face, and the only thing that you can see are the eyes. The look in the eyes of these entities is saturated with pride. Everyone looks identical except the Evilest of the evils, who has on his robe, an upside-down cross embroidered in gold.

The twelve hooded entities stood in front of their thrones waiting for the signal, and as soon as the Evilest of the evils gave the order, they all sat down. The huge living room is divided into five areas.

One: Meeting guests. The largest section of the entire room.

Two: Stage of the twelve members of the High Council.

Three: Area for the ADVISORS in front of the platform.

Four: Witness platform, located next to the ADVISORS.

Five: The Dark Zone, located on the left side of the platform.

The intrigue related to the reasons for the emergency meeting corrodes the six Advisors and especially Mr. Odeim. He doesn't know it, but this meeting is the straw that broke the camel's back and will affect his existence for ever. This impetuous demon blindly believed in Satan, but after legally defending Dadlam there was a change in his inner being.

Odeim began to suspect... that Satan... has not told the whole truth to the demons.

For thousands of years, THE CONSORTIUM, using different names, has controlled the world. The management of the powerful company is in the hands of Mr. Z, but decision-making rests within the High Council. They manipulate the world from the Room of Hidden Secrets. The main purpose of this diabolical institution is to promote evil in the world without humans realizing its presence. Their strategy is to create smokeballs, to distract humans, and go unnoticed. By using this "distraction", most humans do not believe that spiritual warfare is real.

The High Council is responsible for the strategies used to manipulate humans. One of the most revered slogans by these spiritual entities has to do with the phrase:

"Satan intervenes with right and without rights"

The phrase is written in front of the high platform, where the twelve members of the High Council sit. It summarizes in a few words the power of the maximum leader of the Empire of Darkness. All Advisors, except Odeim, accept these words... as the absolute truth. Intervening, with right, in the lives of humans, is associated with sin. It does the opposite of God's will... it is the simplest and most accurate definition... of sin.

Considering what has been learned, when studying Dadlam's evidence, the first part... of the phrase... is correct. Humans who do evil (sin) give Satan the right to intervene in their lives. Sin enslaves! Most humans are unaware that the wages of sin is death. As long as humans focus on doing evil... the kingdom of Darkness... thrives. It is extremely important to keep humans away from the truth.

THE CONSORTIUM does everything possible, to prevent humans from knowing, that the wages of sin is death (Note: 1).

Attorney Odeim has a problem with the second part of the phrase. It assures that Satan can intervene, without right. A half-truth that deceives demons and humans. The phrase "Satan intervenes with right and without rights," is intended to use half-truths, to create the illusion that Lucifer is more powerful than God. While waiting for the meeting to start, the attorney's mind traveled through time... and remembered... what Dadlam said about the phrase.

Both were in an uncomfortable and stinky dungeon. In the center of the cell there was a metal table attached to the floor. Odeim took notes for his defense while Dadlam walked like crazy from one side to the other. He constantly repeated over and over again:

"He's powerful, but he's not extremely powerful."

When man does evil, he opens the doors, so that Satan can attack. There is not much to do except to resist the devil. The GREAT Book warns that, if human beings resist the devil, he will flee from them.

"Why do you say he's not extremely powerful?" the attorney asked.

"It's a frontage!" shouted the accused of treason and terrorism.

"What do you mean?" Odeim asked in a slow tone, trying to calm him down.

As explained, when man does the right thing and Satan insists on attacking him, he does it without right. Is not the power of Satan that intervenes but the ignorance of humans, which allows the attack. Dadlam, in a tone that reveals concern, said:

"Satan will be in danger... if humans... become aware."

"Become aware of what?"

"Of God's good will," Dadlam said without hiding his discomfort.

Lucifer, better known as Satan, can intervene in a man's life in two ways: with right and without right. These attacks are intended to cause calamity in humans, taking away health, affecting family ties, inciting poverty, and destroying friendships, among many other things. Dadlam discovered that when Lucifer attacks with right, all man can do is resist him. Everything changes, when Satan attacks without right, because now man can appeal to the good will of God.

“The God of Creation... has the power... to duplicate what has been taken away.” [Note:3].

The words of Dadlam caused anguish in Odeim.

The huge room, known as the "Room of the Secrets", is divided into five areas. Of all of them, the most mysterious and enigmatic is the Dark Zone. Dense blackness, located on the left side of the platform, hides the representative of the kingdom of Darkness. After the twelve members of the High Council sat down, the huge figure, as if floating, came out of the darkness. The light confirmed what everyone suspects: is ugly and looks dangerous.

The name of the dark creature is Tolerance and belongs to the inner circle of Lucifer. He has a human torso, but his face and limbs are of reptile. His impressive face is similar to the "Dragon of Komodo". The threatening creature uses his completely black eyes, to intimidate everyone. He is responsible for calling the emergency meeting.

In a harsh and unpleasant tone, he said:

“My name is Tolerance.”

After identifying himself, the ugly and intimidating creature with a reptile's face and tail, said:

“We're in trouble!”

Everyone in the room, tremble when they heard these alarming words.

Notes:

1. For the wages of sin is death, while the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:23).
2. Submit to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you (James 4:7).
3. After Job had prayed for his friends, the Lord made him prosper again and gave him twice as much as he had before (Job 42:10).
