

Love Revolution

Normally, when the High Council meets, the representatives of the various departments of THE CONSORTIUM fill the room. This time, because it is an emergency meeting, the room is empty. Only the 12 members of the High Council and the six Advisors are meeting with Tolerance, the representative of Lucifer's inner circle. The ugly creature, with the face of "Dragon Komodo", looks worried. His body language reveals that he is agitated and restless.

“We're in problems! serious trouble!”

This statement caused intense concern among the attendees. It is not common for a member of Satan's inner circle to recognize that they have problems. The «The evilest of all of them» shouted in a bad mood:

“Trouble! What problems are you talking about?”

"I'm talking about the outpouring..." Tolerance replied.

Confused with the term, the leader of the High Council yelled:

“What outpouring are you talking about?”

The huge and intimidating reptile in a low tone said:

The outpouring of the Spirit of God.

The commotion revolves around the alarming message that came from the Throne of God, which the espionage division intercepted. According to this alarming message, the God of Creation plans to pour out his Holy Spirit among humans. As a result of this event... the Christian church... will be transformed. Currently, the Christian church, manipulated by THE CONSORTIUM, is opaque and full of spiritual spots and wrinkles. The members of Lucifer's inner circle recognize that the outpouring of the Spirit of God is something serious and dangerous. As a result of this outpouring, the church will go from opaque to bright! Instantly, their spots and wrinkles will disappear. No more imperfections! [Note: 1]

The church will undergo a metamorphosis like a butterfly. They will stop crawling to fly! The multiple imperfections, which limit the church today, will be replaced by virtues that will transform the church into brilliant, holy, and blameless. Very soon... when the "outpouring" of the Spirit of God occurs... THE CONSORTIUM will cease to exist.

"We have to prevent this outpouring from happening," Tolerance exclaimed with a trembling voice.

Only a small group of humans, identified as Christians, have heard of this outpouring. Hearing about the "outpouring" and believing that it will happen are two different things. The DC division, (deceiving and confusing), has done an excellent job of hiding the truth. Most of the Advisors, for not knowing the truth of the outpouring, were undeterred by the Tolerance's comment.

Only Attorney Odeim tremble at the news. It is not that he believes in the outpouring, but that he has begun to suspect, that Dadlam was not as crazy as many claimed. In the beginning, while preparing the strategy to defend the accused, he despised the evidence collected from the Garden of Wisdom. On this occasion, his artificial body was violently shaken, recalling what the defendant said in relation to the outpouring.

In his mind, again and again, he heard Dadlam's saying:

“We have to prevent it from happening!”

Odeim finds himself lost in his thoughts. His body is in the room, but his mind is in the dungeon where Dadlam was imprisoned. He recalled, in great detail, the heavy discussions held with Dadlam, because of his crazy claims. At first, during the preparations for his defense, he opted to use "mental insanity" to exonerate the accused. The strategy was discarded by his client who, with fervent passion, insisted on the veracity of the evidence extracted from the Garden of Wisdom.

Odeim remembered again the argument he had with his client.

"We have to prevent it from happening!" Dadlam repeated again.

"How are we going to know when is about to happen?" the attorney asked.

"We must pay attention to the Love Revolution"

If there is an inconceivable issue in THE CONSORTIUM, is LOVE. On an intellectual level, demons know in theory everything related to love. The problem is that they can't experience it. One of the reasons why they hate humans is that these mortal beings have the ability to experience love. To talk about love is to talk about one of the three most powerful forces of the entire universe. These three forces are faith, hope and love [Note: 2]. The evidence held by Dadlam confirms the danger that love poses to evil. It's like water for fire; it destroys it!

"What do you mean... with the love revolution?" Odeim asked.

Dadlam, with eyes exorbitant by his frustration, commented:

"The love revolution... has three... phases.

The accused of treason and terrorism explained that the first phase is related to the main commandment of the Bible. The second phase is linked to the second commandment of the Bible. The third phase, the most difficult of all, will be simplified when God pours out his Spirit. Most demons do not read the GREAT book, considering it dangerous. On his trip to the Garden of Wisdom, Dadlam was forced to read this dangerous book. As a result of his reading, his mind was filled with ideas, contrary to Lucifer's teachings.

"What are these phases?" Odeim asked, eaten away by curiosity.

"The first phase begins..."

Dadlam paused briefly. As he talked about the first phase, his face wrinkled with anger. It is uncomfortable to recognize that the "love revolution" begins with loving God above all things [Note: 3]. After regaining his composure, he repeated:

The first phase begins... with loving God... in all His fullness.

Talking about God, with capital "G", is an uncomfortable topic for any demon, if you add to that the concept of "Love", it becomes a harmful subject and very destructive to these entities of the kingdom of Darkness.

"What does it mean to love God in all his fullness?" Dadlam asked in a mocking tone.

Dadlam's response shook the attorney:

"Fullness is... to love God... with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind".

True love cancels misunderstandings and anger because it keeps no record of wrongs. Support all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things [Note: 4]. True love rejoices in the truth. Love is a deadly virus for THE CONSORTIUM. When love abounds in the Christian, it never gives up, never loses faith, always has hope and stands firm in all circumstances [Note: 5].

"The second phase is established by Jesus Christ," Dadlam said.

The accused of treason and terrorism, like all demons, considered Jesus Christ to be crazy. A mad man, who was crucified, for posing himself as God. In the "Garden of Wisdom," he discovered the truth, and changed his opinion about Jesus Christ. In a tone that reveals concern, Dadlam said:

"The second phase has to do with loving your neighbor."

The evidence in Dadlam's possession points to Jesus Christ as being responsible for revealing to the world, the second most important commandment of the Bible. Love your neighbor as yourself! [Note:6]. Lowering the tone of voice, Dadlam said:

"The third phase has to do with two very difficult tasks for human beings."

"What are those two tasks?" Odeim asked more out of courtesy than out of interest.

It is important to note that Attorney Odeim, at the beginning of his investigation, considered that Dadlam was crazy, and that Jesus Christ was a madman who was crucified. His disbelief, doubt and distrust dissipated as he became aware of the evidence that was brought from the Garden of Wisdom.

"The first task... requires Christians to love their enemies."

In a naughty and mocking tone, Odeim asked:

"What is the second task?"

"The second task requires "praying" for those who persecute them."
[Note: 7].

Both tasks... fall into the category... of impossible for human beings. The outpouring of the Spirit of God will allow the "love revolution" to activate the three phases and reach its maximum splendor. In a tone that reveals concern and anguish, Dadlam said:

The "love revolution" is a serious danger to THE CONSORTIUM.

The thoughts of Attorney Odeim were interrupted when Tolerance hit hard the desk where the Advisors are located. Spitting hatred, the ugly entity with the head of "Dragon Komodo", shouted:

We have to prevent this "outpouring" from happening.
