

Works for You!

Johnston County Industries (JCI) is committed to providing its programs and services without discrimination.

JCI operates its programs and services without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, creed (religion), age, or disability in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related nondiscrimination laws.

No person shall, on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, creed (religion), age, or disability, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise subjected to discrimination under any JCI program, service, or activity.

JCI receives Federal Transit Administration (FTA) funds through the North Carolina Department of Transportation (NCDOT). JCI uses these funds to purchase transportation services from local transit providers for individuals receiving applicable JCI services.

Your Right to File a Complaint

Any person who believes they have been subjected to unlawful discrimination in connection with a JCI program, service, or activity may file a Title VI discrimination complaint with JCI. Complaints must be submitted in writing within 180 calendar days of the alleged discriminatory action.

To file a complaint or request additional information about JCI's Title VI program, contact:
