The senior level leads for their commitment, leadership and positive support of every dancer in the show

My parents for always volunteering and helping out at the shows

My husband Francisco Stoller for being my number one support and best friend always

My kids for making the Nutcracker our family tradition and the season full of love and laughs.

The Booster Club would like to thank all the dancers and parent volunteers that work hard to make sure this event is successful. A special thanks to Stacie Jenner for her work making ornaments and plaques and to Tim Jenner for the use of their trailer to transport props and costumes.

Story Summary

It is Christmas Eve at the Stahlmbaum's home. Children dance and enjoy a magical show with life-size dolls by toy maker Drosselmeyer. Clara receives a beautiful Nutcracker that her brother Fritz breaks. After a quick repair, the night gets late and the party dissipates. Clara goes to bed with her Nutcracker tucked under her arm. When the clock strikes midnight, she wakes to discover large mice in the room. Clara tries to escape, but the room transforms into a Mouse Kingdom. The Nutcracker appears with an army to protect Clara! The Rat King and his army of mice fight the Nutcracker and his troops. Just as the Rat King harms the Nutcracker, Clara slaps the Rat King with her ballet slipper, defeating him. Clara cries over the Nutcracker and her tears bring him to life! He takes her to the Winter Wonderland where she meets the Snow Queen and her Snowflakes.

Clara then travels to the Magic Castle in her sleigh, where the angels stand guard. Clara meets the Sugar Plum Fairy and she invites her to stay to enjoy performances in her honor, as a thank you for defeating the Rat King. Dancers from all over the world and the Waltzing Flowers all entertain Clara in the Magic Castle. The Sugar Plum Fairy performs with the Prince, and then all of the dancers return for one final dance. As the dancers leave, Clara wonders...was it really all a dream?
