

New Leaf Educational Pathways

New Leaf Education Pathways – a bespoke education provision for developing confidence, academic potential and achievement.

Students are assessed academically and emotionally before starting the appropriate education pathway tier.

This approach allows bespoke planning of an alternative curriculum allowing all students to blossom.

New Leaf Educational Pathways

Tier 1 Academic GCSE	Tier 2 Entry Level/ASDAN	Tier 3 Bespoke scheme
Academic Support: Students follow OCR GCSE specifications in Maths, English and Science, allowing them to sit GCSE examinations in a supportive environment. This gives the option of progressing to further study if appropriate.	Academic Support: Students follow a supported academic curriculum at the appropriate level, studying Entry Level and/or ASDAN qualifications. Staff structure lessons around filling gaps in previous learning and developing confidence in the subject.	Academic Support: Students follow a bespoke, differentiated curriculum, specifically designed by New Leaf experienced SEN teachers, to develop student knowledge and strengthen key stages.
Wellbeing Support: Alongside academic lessons students receive PSHE lessons, emotional support and counselling (where appropriate), and gain social skills during structured sessions to prepare for college induction. Careers advice is available for students to plan their next move.	Wellbeing Support: Alongside subject lessons students receive PSHE lessons, emotional support and counselling (where appropriate), and gain social skills during structured sessions to develop life skills. Careers advice is available for students to plan their next move.	Wellbeing Support: During lessons students receive emotional support and nurture. New Leaf prides itself on a pupil-centric approach, which boosts confidence, feelings of inclusivity and wellbeing.