

Six Other Days Privacy Policy

Last updated: February 2026

1. Who we are

This website is operated by Six Other Days (“we”, “us”, “our”).

We provide project management, change management, and digital delivery consultancy services.

This website is hosted using GoDaddy Websites + Marketing.

If you have any questions about this policy or how we handle personal data, please contact us using the details provided on this website.

2. Information we collect

Information you provide to us

We may collect personal information when you:

- Complete a contact form
- Request a discovery call
- Communicate with us via email

This information may include:

- Name
- Email address
- Organisation name
- Job title
- Any information you choose to include in your message

Information collected automatically

When you visit our website, certain information is collected automatically, including:

- IP address
- Browser type and device information
- Pages visited and time spent on the site
- Referral source

This data is collected through cookies and standard website analytics tools provided by GoDaddy.

3. How we use your information

We use personal data only for legitimate business purposes, including:

- Responding to enquiries and discovery call requests
- Communicating about our services
- Improving website performance and content
- Managing client and prospective client relationships
- Meeting legal or regulatory obligations

We do not sell or trade personal data.

4. Lawful basis for processing

We process personal data under one or more of the following lawful bases:

- Consent – where you submit information via our website
- Legitimate interests – to operate and improve our business
- Legal obligation – where processing is required by law

You may withdraw consent at any time.

5. Cookies and tracking

This website uses cookies provided by GoDaddy to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly
- Analyse website traffic and usage
- Improve user experience

A cookie notice is displayed when you first visit the site, allowing you to manage your preferences.

You can also control or disable cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling cookies may affect website functionality.

6. Website hosting and third-party services

Our website is hosted by GoDaddy.

GoDaddy may process personal data on our behalf for:

- Website hosting and security
- Form submissions
- Website analytics

GoDaddy acts as a data processor and is contractually required to protect personal data and process it in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

We do not intentionally share personal data with other third parties unless required to operate the website or comply with legal obligations.

7. Data storage and security

We take appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against:

- Unauthorised access
- Loss or misuse
- Accidental disclosure

Personal data is retained only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this policy or to meet legal requirements.

8. International data transfers

As GoDaddy operates globally, personal data may be processed outside the UK or Channel Islands.

Where this occurs, appropriate safeguards are in place to ensure data is protected in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

9. Your rights

You have the right to:

- Request access to the personal data we hold about you
- Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete data
- Request deletion of your personal data
- Object to or restrict processing
- Withdraw consent at any time
- Lodge a complaint with a relevant data protection authority

Requests can be made using the contact details on this website.

10. Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for their content or privacy practices. Please review their privacy policies separately.

11. Changes to this policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The most current version will always be available on this page.

12. Contact us

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or how your personal data is handled, please get in touch with us using the details provided on this website.
