Sincitycairo.org

Korollos Nakhla, known as Sin City Cairo" was born in 1987 to a poor Egyptian family. As a first generation Egyptian American, he feels it's his mission to give his family the life he says, "...they deserve". He's always been passionate about music, even in elementary school and has always known music is what he wants to do with his life.

After Sin City Cairo's 3rd self-titled mixtape, This Game is Mine, he finally felt he was ready. He set a goal to reach the ears of the right people in the underground Las Vegas Hip Hop arena through the mixtape. The Game is Mine opened doors for the young rapper and helped Sin City Cairo get offered a record deal, "which he declined". He was also introduced to, "Camel Hump Music" where he records his music today, whenever he's in Las Vegas.

Not too long afterward Sin City Cairo met "J Battle", a Seattle based emcee who gave him what he needed from day one. "The Wave Plugins", which is a $10,000 program was used to help create, what he felt, was the music he should have been making from the start.

He has been making his presence known, primarily in the western United States. He has toured up and down the west coast. He calls Vegas and LA home.

1.) For The People Who Don't Know Who You Are How Would You Introduce Yourself?

My stage name is Sin City Cairo, I'm a full blooded Egyptian American Hip Hop Artist. I was born and raised in Las Vegas, NV but currently reside in Los Angeles, CA.

3.) How Did You Get Your Artist Name?

It's a combination of my City and my mother land. Sin City represents Vegas and Cairo is the capital of Egypt.

5.) Who Are Some Artist's That Inspire Your Sound And Do You Think Where You Live/Grew Up Influenced Your Sound?

Eminem, Jay Z, J Cole, Logic, Snoop Dogg, Nas, I was influenced by everyone. My style is diverse I wouldn't really say Vegas influenced my sound, my style has definitely become more West Coast when I moved to LA.

7.) Who Are Your Dream Features?

Obviously any of the G.O.A.T.s but even some Katz in the underground scene would be dope like Chris Webby, Ritz, Dizzy Wright, Phora just to name a few.

9.) Before We End Our Interview Please Elaborate Anything Else You'd Like About Yourself Or Promo For Any Upcoming Projects Your Dropping Soon!

I've got new single on the way which eventually will drop as an album, "Better Late Than Never" keep your eyes open and your ears ready, we're dropping heat this year!

2.) When Did You Begin Making Music Or Getting Into?

I started writing raps when I was like 11 or 12 years old, but didn't get fully into it until I graduated high school. I started recording music at 19 years old when I linked up with the Homie J Krook A.K.A. Big Ed!

4.) What Are Your Goals In Music, What Do You Think You'll Be Able To Achieve?

The sky is the limit, only time can tell what I'm fully capable of.

6.) Music's Diversity In Sound Has Expanded So Much More Recently, What Makes You Different?

You're going to have to go listen to find out.

8.) What Is One Thing You Love About Making Music And What Is One Thing You Hate?

It's my therapy it's a form of expression that's gotten me through the toughest times of my life. I don't really hate much about making music it's my passion, only downfall is peoples attention span is so short now a days. The rate people consume music at has definitely change, now a days it's all about dropping music asap. Consistency is the key this day in age.

Sin City Cairo – Better Late Than Never | Album @SinCityCairo February 14, 2023Wanja

After being tucked away for two years working on new music, Sin City Cairo reappears to the scene with a brand new 10 tracks album, “Better Late Than Never”.

The album is a behind the scene look at the rappers personal life beyond the music, “If you’d like to know where I’ve been for the past couples years listen to this album” he says. A follow up to, “The Saga” which dropped in the spring of 2020 shortly after the release the world was struck with the Corona Virus Pandemic.

“Better Late Than Never” a project two year in the making, “Is his best work ever” he says.

Growing his abilities as an emcee, Sin City Cairo once again taps into his Egyptian roots. With song like, “Ewl ya Rab” and “Sineen Tewela” that have a full Arabic Chorus. More highlights on the album are songs like, “Pain” and “How Could I Not Cry” a tribute to his late father, (who passed away from Corona Virus in November of 2021) the last song on the album it shows the artist vulnerable side. The chorus goes, “the night my pops died, how could I not cry? How could I not cry? The night my pops died.”
