

Homefront Players Memorial Scholarships

To be eligible for these scholarships, the applicant must:

- Be a graduating high school senior
- Have demonstrated a commitment to Homefront Players by participating in two or more productions the last four years
- Be a student in good standing eligible for graduation from their current school
- Be pursuing advanced education, not necessarily in the area of Theater Arts
- If you plan on postponing entrance to college, additional requirements may apply.

Please select which scholarship you are applying for (you may select more than one):

_____ Megan Stoker - Megan was an extremely bright student. She was a senior at UVA ,majoring in broadcast journalism when she passed away. She performed in many productions at the Beaty Theatre. This scholarship is usually awarded to an onstage performer, but not limited to that.

_____ Chris Rightmyer - Chris was the wife of Col. Bob Rightmyer. She was a devoted theater person who volunteered her time to find a new theater location, was a producer and liaison with Post commanders, and helped in any capacity she could. This scholarship was established to recognize those students who also support the theater both on and offstage, but is not limited to that.

_____ Robert Rightmyer - Bob was always helping behind the scenes whether it was working a light or sound board or helping out wherever needed. He worked as the theater company's accountant for many years. After his wife, Chris, passed away, he wanted to continue her legacy with the Theater Company. This scholarship was established to recognize students who contribute in a behind-the-scenes capacity.

_____ Sarah Erway - Sarah was a true all-around student and performer. She was involved in many productions in which she danced, sang, and acted. Sarah was eager to learn and even earned the Megan Stoker scholarship as a senior in high school. This scholarship was established to recognize students who are all-around good citizens.

This application form and letter on school letterhead from the applicant's guidance counselor or home school equivalent confirming the student is in good standing and is a candidate for graduation should be sent or e-mailed to:

Homefront Players, PO Box 5353, Fort Lee, Virginia 23801
info@leeplayhouse.com

The application and accompanying documentation must be received by April 26, 2023.
If awarded, the scholarship amount awarded will be $500.
