Elephant Talk

Plano Republican Women | TFRW Region No: 3 Senate District No: 8 | November 2026

President's Byline

Dear PRW Members and Friends,

It has often been said that we are not defined by how many times we fall, but by how many times we get back up. I believe there is great truth in those words. It is easy to stand strong when things are going our way. But it is during the difficult moments, when the outcome isn't what we had hoped or worked so hard for, that our character, determination, and commitment are truly revealed.

As we reflect on this election cycle, I want each of you to know just how incredibly proud I am of our Plano Republican Women. You showed up, stepped up, and gave your time, energy, and hearts to something greater than yourselves. From block walking and phone banking to greeting voters, placing signs, supporting candidates, and encouraging our neighbors to vote, you demonstrated what true grassroots leadership looks like.

While we celebrate our victories and learn from our disappointments, we must never lose sight of the difference we make. Elections come and go, but the friendships we build, the principles we stand for, and the commitment we share endure far beyond any single Election Day.

Our strength has never been measured solely by the outcome of an election. It is measured by our willingness to keep showing up, especially when the road gets tough.

So, we dust ourselves off, hold our heads high, and move forward with renewed purpose. There is still much work to be done, many opportunities ahead, and every reason to remain optimistic about the future.

Thank you for your dedication, your friendship, and your unwavering commitment to Collin County, Texas and America. It is an honor to serve alongside such an extraordinary group of women.

Onward and upward, together!

With heartfelt gratitude,

Blessings,

Kathy Ward

PRW November Meeting

NEXT GENERAL MEETING:

November 17, 2026

November's speaker will be
D'rinda Randall
Chair of the Republican Party of Texas

D'rinda Randall is the Chair of the Republican Party of Texas, leading one of the largest, most influential, and most successful Republican organizations in the nation. A dynamic grassroots leader known for her energy, optimism, and servant leadership, D'rinda has dedicated her career to growing the conservative movement from the precinct level to statewide leadership.

After serving in nearly every level of party leadership, from Precinct Chair and House District Chair to Presiding election judge, campaign strategist, Alternate Delegate to the 2016 Republican National Convention, and Vice Chair of RPT. D'rinda was elected Chair of the Republican Party of Texas with more than 80% of the vote. She proudly calls it "The Unity Vote," because Republicans from every corner and every faction of the Party came together around one shared mission: Texas is better when it's redder!

Before becoming Chair, D'rinda served as Vice Chair of the Republican Party of Texas, traveling thousands of miles across the Lone Star State, listening to grassroots Republicans, strengthening county parties, training volunteers, and helping build stronger local organizations. Her passion for growing conservative organizations extends beyond state politics. As president of a Texas Federation of Republican Women club, she grew the organization to more than 500 members, making it one of the largest and most active clubs in Texas.

Outside of politics, D'rinda is an award-winning Texas Realtor®, entrepreneur, and founder of a nonprofit organization dedicated to preventing sudden cardiac arrest in young people through education, awareness, and heart screenings. Her work has helped save lives, strengthened communities, and reflects her lifelong commitment to serving others. She also and initiated a program in Houston focused on educating youth about capitalism and community service.

A devoted Christian, wife to David Randall, mother of three sons, and proud grandmother, D'rinda leads with faith, optimism, and a deep love for Texas. Whether speaking to a room of precinct chairs or thousands of Republicans, her message is always the same:

"Texas is better when it's redder."

In Remembrance of Anne Logan

Anne Logan, a long-time member of Plano Republican Women passed away on Friday, October 23, 2026. Anne was a Tribute to Women honoree in 2006 and 2016. She was awarded the Anne Harrington Award in 2006 and the Patsy Standefer Award in 2008 She served on the board as the Newsletter Editor, Recording Secretary, 2nd Vice President, and Historian. The following was written by our chaplain, Donna Krauss

Anne (Mary) Logan

Who? Anne Mary Logan? Well, let me tell you about her name. I knew Anne Logan for over 20 years and have had many deep and revealing conversations with her, but I never knew that her name was really Mary Anne Logan until she moved into an assisted living facility and I called to get her room number.

When I asked about Anne Logan, they said they didn't have a resident there by that name and I knew she was there. Then they said they had a Mary Anne Logan and I said that must be her. When I got there, I found out in fact that Mary was her legal first name, but she never went by it, she was always just sweet, wonderful special Anne Logan to me and so many others. Anne was a friend, patriot, woman of God and oh so much more! She loved and cherished her twin daughters Kristi and Misti so much and appreciated all they did for her. Anne enjoyed the other members of her family and treasured the phone calls and visits with them.

She thought the world of her friends and she had many. Anne and I got to be close in ways that I am so grateful for. We shared personal stories about our thoughts, desires, work lives, as well as funny episodes and challenges and concerns. There were no topics we couldn't address. There was a comfortable freedom that prevailed whenever we were together or on the phone. I will treasure that always and will miss those fun and intimate talk times. Sometimes there were tears and understanding as when she lost her beloved dog Sammy. Recently I found a balloon dog and got it for her and she just laughed and loved it.

We enjoyed going out to lunch and went to a variety of places, Kostas, Olive Garden, Ellie's Tea Room and more. One of her favorites though was Dairy Queen. I had never had a Blizzard until a few years ago and Anne introduced me to them and they are yummy. Sometimes I would just take her one-her favorite was chocolate with M &M's or with Reese's. Another favorite of hers there were the chocolate dipped cones. Anne loved to read and always had a book with her when I picked her up to go to a meeting or out to lunch.

I didn't get to take her to vote in the mid- term election, but she did vote in the primary. She was the kind of citizen that made this country strong and she so honored the flag and all it stands for. She loved this country above all others. She felt very bad that she couldn't help more in this recent election. We were all blessed that she was at our last meeting smiling and seeing so many that she cared about and they cared for her. I talked to her on that Thursday and on Friday also and when her daughter called me on Saturday morning, I was hit with shock, grief and sorrow. But I know where Anne is, sweet, smiling Anne. She is in heaven with her GOD and is out of pain and the world's issues. I look forward to the day we will be reunited for eternity, until then I hope she knows how much she is missed and loved by me and others.

PRW August Meeting

A History of White House Thanksgiving Traditions

The White House Thanksgiving celebration has been traced back to President Abraham Lincoln, when the president declared in October 1863 that the last Thursday in November would be commemorated as Thanksgiving Day. Lincoln is also credited with the first turkey pardon, even though it was for Christmas. According to an 1865 dispatch from White House reporter Noah Brooks: "a live turkey had been brought home for the Christmas dinner, but [Lincoln's son Tad] interceded on behalf of its life…[Tad's] plea was admitted and the turkey's life spared."

"While many turkeys have found their way to the White House over the years, it appears that most presidents did not "pardon" these birds. The formal tradition of the turkey pardon solidified in 1989 when President George H. W. Bush remarked: "But let me assure you, and this fine tom turkey, that he will not end up on anyone's dinner table, not this guy—he's granted a presidential pardon as of right now—and allow him to live out his days on a children's farm not far from here." - Lina Mann, Historian at The White House Historical Association

History of Thanksgiving and turkey pardons at the White House: Reports of turkeys as gifts to American presidents can be traced back to the 1870s, when Rhode Island poultry dealer Horace Vose began sending well fed birds to the White House. Turkey presentations at the White House became national news in the 1920s with accounts of turkeys taking exciting cross-country trips to the White House and arriving dressed for the occasion in goggles and sweaters, inside their decorated coops. In addition to serving a traditional turkey dinner, White House Thanksgiving meals have featured regional items such as Chesapeake Bay oysters, rockfish from the Potomac River, terrapin from Maryland's Eastern Shore, cranberries from Cape Cod, and mince and pumpkin pies.

Stories of Note: In 1921, one turkey named Supreme II traveled to the White House by airplane at a time when flight was still a novelty and delivery of letters and packages via air mail had only recently begun. The turkey traveled in style "wearing an aviation helmet and goggles and clad in a black and gold sweater held on by a pink bow." Turkeys are not well suited for flight—and the trip ended early when Supreme II became air sick. The turkey made the rest of the trip to the White House by train.

In 1922—President Warren G. Harding's last Thanksgiving at the White House—the Harding Girls Club of Chicago sent another turkey on a wild ride. Supreme III, who the girls fattened on chocolates, took a sensational, record-breaking road trip. He traveled more than 800 miles in just under 38 hours, and like his predecessors made national news. The Atlanta Constitution noted that the turkey had traveled comfortably: "a motor coat was made especially for him" and an "extra-large cage, suspended by and set on springs, to prevent too much shake-up on the trip."

President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed legislation (H.J. Res 41) in 1941 designating the fourth Thursday in November as the federal Thanksgiving Day holiday. President Harry S. Truman was the first president to receive a turkey from the Poultry and Egg National Board and National Turkey Federation. Although Truman did not start the turkey pardon tradition, his administration made turkey presentations a presidential media event that continues today.

In the mid-twentieth century, the Poultry and Egg National Board and the National Turkey Federation started presenting turkeys to the White House. President John F. Kennedy pardoned a turkey meant for his table in 1963, as did some of his successors on occasion. Later during Ronald Reagan's presidency, the pardon became part of the turkey presentation ceremony in the Rose Garden. President George H.W. Bush made it an annual tradition by pardoning every turkey during his administration. All presidents since have continued the turkey pardon as a light-hearted press event in the days leading up to Thanksgiving.

Famous White House Recipes

This Thanksgiving, why don't you try your hand at a little Presidential cooking? Impress your guests with these holiday recipes from America's First Family.

Herbert and Lou Hoover's Marshmallow Sweet Potatoes

Ingredients:
6 sweet potatoes
2 tablespoons of butter
2 cups chopped walnuts
Nutmeg
Salt
Cream
Marshmallows

Instructions:
1. Boil the sweet potatoes until tender. Drain well.
2. Mash the potatoes thoroughly with a potato masher, making sure to remove any strings.
3. Add butter, then season with nutmeg and salt to taste (start with small amounts; adjust as you like).
4. Pour in cream gradually, mixing until the potatoes reach a smooth, soft consistency.
5. Fold in the chopped walnuts.
6. Transfer the mixture to a baking dish and bake for 10 minutes.
7. Top with marshmallows and return to the oven. Bake until the marshmallows are lightly browned and the top is golden

George and Laura Bush's Deviled Eggs

Ingredients:
12 large eggs, boiled hard and peeled
1 tablespoon (plus) soft butter
1 tablespoon (plus) mayonnaise
1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
1/2 teaspoon Yucatán Sunshine Habanero sauce
(can be substituted for another hot sauce)
Salt to taste

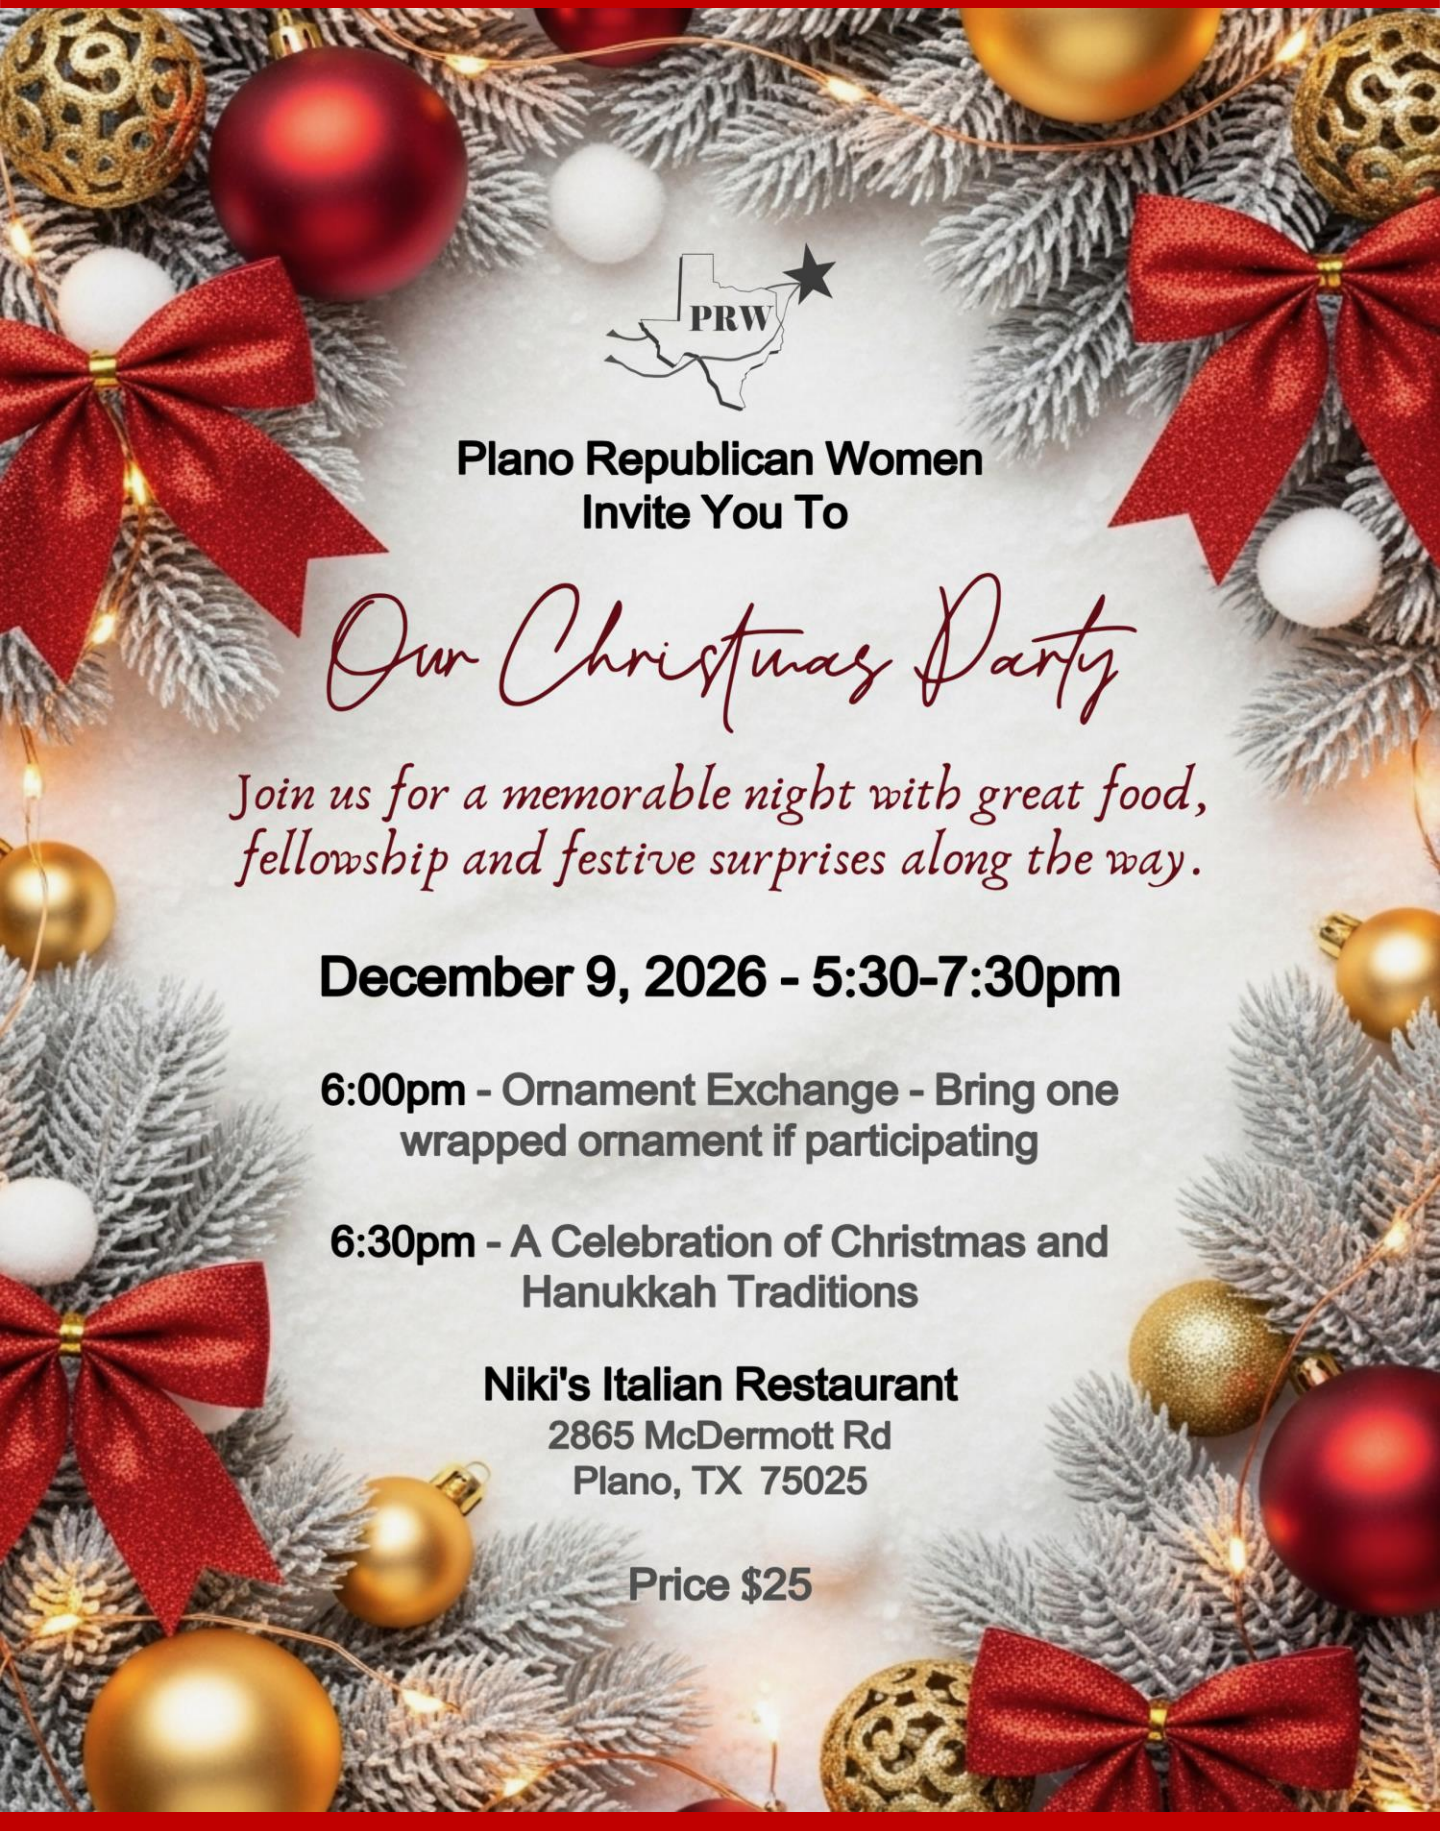

Instructions:
1. Cut the eggs in half lengthwise and carefully remove the yolks. Set the egg white halves aside.
2. Place the yolks in a food processor and add the mustard, Habanero sauce, and salt.
3. Process for about 20 seconds, or until the mixture is smooth and well blended.
4. Taste and adjust seasoning—add a bit more mustard, salt, or hot sauce if desired.
5. Transfer the mixture to a piping bag fitted with a star tip and pipe the filling into the egg white halves.
6. Sprinkle with paprika and chopped parsley for color and flavor.
7. Chill for about 1 hour before serving to allow the flavors to blend.

Gerald and Betty Ford's Celery Stuffing

Ingredients:
1 medium onion, chopped
1 celery stalk, chopped
⅓ cup of butter
2 teaspoons of poultry seasoning
2 tablespoons of chopped parsley
1 teaspoon of salt
5 cups of diced stale bread
1 cup of giblet broth
2 eggs, beaten

Instructions:
1. Sauté the onions and celery in butter over medium heat until tender but not browned.
2. In a large bowl, combine the bread and seasonings.
3. Add the sauteed vegetables to the bread mixture and toss gently to mix.
4. In a separate bowl, whisk together the giblet broth and eggs.
5. Pour the broth mixture over the stuffing, stirring until evenly moistened and well combined.

Stop the Stars Arena

Dear Plano Members,

As many of you know Plano's Prop A on the Stars arena at the Willow Bend Mall failed. While that is great, the Plano Mayor and City Manager still want this arena to be built in Plano. They will try to find another way to fund the project. One way the city is looking to fund the arena is through lobbying the state government. The voters have spoken. We don't want this arena. It does not belong next to a residential area. The city still can't answer many questions on traffic, funding, and other concerns the residents have. Also finance models tell us that the arena will not make a profit for 30 years. Lastly, decades of research and 130 studies all say the same thing., government owned arenas fail. They don't bring in high paying jobs, revenues, and are basically money pits. If a billionaire wants a new arena he can build it himself.

We are Republicans.. We are the party of Capitalism not Corporatism. We believe in free markets and private property, not government owned businesses. Please write to the City Council and to the Collin County state reps and tell them to honor the election results and not fund this arena. Below are the emails of the city council and the Collin County state reps. Also, if you are on Facebook, please join the Stop The Stars Arena Group. We need residents to come to city council meetings for Comments of Public Interest once a month. You don't have to speak. We just need you to be there and hold our Puck Fliers. We let people know when to attend the city council meetings on our Facebook Group group.

Ronald and Nancy Reagan's Pumpkin Pecan Pie

Ingredients:

4 slightly beaten eggs
2 cups canned or mashed cooked pumpkin
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell
1 cup chopped pecans

Instructions:

1. Preheat the oven to 350°F (175°C).
2. Combine all ingredients except the pecans, mixing until smooth.
3. Pour the mixture into the unbaked pie shell.
4. Arrange the pecans evenly over the top.
5. Bake for about 40 minutes, or until the filling is set and the top is lightly browned.
6. Cool before serving to allow the filling to firm up.

Vision and Mission Statement:

Plano Republican Women is an American political club, bringing together women to positively impact the direction of our nation. We come together as a collective force advancing the power of women through political access and participation.
Our mission is to see women from all age groups and walks of life as key players at the political table of national, state, and local issues.
