

God of Our Ancestors

To you, O God of my ancestors,
I give thanks and praise,
for you have given me wisdom and power,
and have now revealed to me what we asked of you,
for you have revealed to us what the king ordered.

— Daniel 2:23

*A long ancestral line of women and men
Proceed ahead of us on our journey,
Leaving vivid traces of their history.
They mark the path with their wisdom,
Fill the air with fragrant goodness
And smile with jubilant satisfaction.
You are at the head of this long line
With innumerable people of good will.
Your light spreads throughout all of them,
A great love flowing from them to us.*

All Saints Sunday

November 4, 2018

All Saints Sunday, the first Sunday in November, is designated annually as Book of Remembrance Sunday. Names of people that have passed on during the year are read and their life celebrated with appropriate prayers.

The Book of Remembrance provides an appropriate way to honor or remember a loved one with a monetary gift payable to the "Book of Remembrance". They can be put in the offertory or mailed to the church. Your gifts may be made at any time, and for any amount.

The name of the person you wish to remember, as well as the name of the donor will be inscribed in the Book of Remembrance, which is displayed in the back of the sanctuary.

Our church family wishes to strengthen the church, to enhance and improve its facilities and to extend its life and ministries within the community. In accordance with the church by-laws, these funds shall be used to purchase tangible items which add to the beauty of the church, and/or the effectiveness of its worship. These monies will not be used for the general maintenance or repair of the church.
