Prayer of Confession (Unison)

God of mystery and mercy, we confess we sometimes mistake our own desires for your will. We are too often distracted by our own desires and disappointments and we cling to fantasies and false promises. We fear for the future rather than seeking signs of hope and we preserve what is, rather than work for what you desire to be. Forgive who we have been, amend who we are and direct who we shall be; in Jesus' name we pray.

Assurances of Grace

Reception of New Members, Bill and Susie Herrick

Pastor: Dear friends, today we rejoice in your journey of faith that has brought you to this time and place. We give thanks for every community of faith that has been your spiritual home in the past, and the spiritual mentors who have guided you on your way. We celebrate your presence today in this household of faith, where we are seekers and servants, growing in God's transforming love.

Bill and Susie, do you desire to affirm your baptism into the faith and family of Jesus Christ?

Bill and Susie: We do.

Pastor: Do you renounce the powers of evil and desire the freedom of new life in Christ?

Bill and Susie: We do.

Pastor: Do you profess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior?

Bill and Susie: We do.

Pastor: Do you promise by the grace of God, to be Christ's disciple, to follow in the way of our Savior, to resist oppression and evil, to show love and justice, and to witness to the work and word of Jesus Christ as best as you are able?

Bill and Susie: We promise, with the help of God.

Pastor: Do you promise, according to the grace given you, to grow in the Christian faith and to be a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ, celebrating Christ's presence and furthering Christ's mission in all the world?

Bill and Susie: We promise, with the help of God.

Pastor: Let us confess our faith in the triune God, through the United Church of Christ Statement of faith.

All: We believe in you, O God, Eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ and our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being, create persons in your own image, and set before each one the ways of life and death. You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin. You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior, you have come to us and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be your servants in the service of others, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, your presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

Chair of Deacons: Do you promise to participate in the life and mission of this family of God's people, sharing regularly in the worship of God and enlisting in the work of this local church as it serves this community and the world?

Bill and Susie: We promise, with the help of God.

Chair of Deacons: Let us, the members of Barre Congregational Church, United Church of Christ express our welcome and affirm our mutual ministry in Christ.

Members: We welcome you with joy in the common life of this church. We promise you our friendship and prayers as we share the hopes and labors of the Church of Jesus Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit may we continue to grow together in God's knowledge and love and be witnesses of our risen Savior.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us for our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
