

Future with Hope Women

October 12-2018

*For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.
(Jeremiah 29:11)*

Welcome!

Here we are at the third Future with Hope Women's conference for Catholic women over forty. Thanks for saying YES to the Lord's invitation to step away from the busyness and drink in His gifts with great speakers, exhibitors, and other women.

More thanks:

- To the sponsors, the Arlington Diocese Council of Catholic Women and Joyful Spirit Gifts, who have supported this ministry since they first learned of it, and to all the exhibitors.
- To the St. Agnes staff – Amber Roseboom, Nicole Filipowski, Michael Sirotniak, and our pastor, Father Frederick Edlefsen – for hosting this year's conference.
- To the speakers, who graciously agreed to share their experiences, insights, and faith.
- To Rose Folsom, Carol Monaco, Joan Romett, Joan Sheppard, and Mary Shea for valuable behind-the-scenes work, and to all the volunteers.
- To Colleen Duffy Kiko, my precious sister in Christ. The idea for Future with Hope started with the two of us over a glass or two of wine, and her assistance, friendship, and prayers have meant more than I can say.

I pray you find this a warm, safe place to draw closer to sisters in Christ – and to God. He does have a future with hope for you. I guarantee it.

In Christ, Melanie Rigney

- The Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, to whom we attempted – sometimes successfully – to surrender every fear and concern in organizing this weekend.

Martha, Our Patron Saint

We chose St. Martha as the conference patron saint because we could see ourselves in her story. Maybe you can too.

Martha got cranky. She invited Jesus into her family's home and, while she was bustling about getting everything perfect, her sister Mary just sat and listened to their guest. Who wouldn't be a little upset? But when she complained to Jesus, the answer was unexpected: "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her." (Luke 10:41-42 NRSVCE)

Martha had unshakable faith amid crisis. Her brother was dead and she knew, if their friend had been there, Lazarus would still be alive. She told Jesus that. Still, when Jesus said Lazarus would rise again, she did not expect Jesus to bring him back immediately, but rather on the last day. When Jesus probed her statement, she answered, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world." (John 11:27 NRSVCE)

Thanks for coming! Please don't forget to turn in your surveys. Blessings and safe travels, Melanie
