ROOTED READINGS 5 DAY STUDY STUDY. SOAK. SURRENDER. Slow down, open the Word, and let your roots go deeper in Christ

The Worship Shelf

Heart Behind Rooted Readings Welcome

Many of us love God and love His Word-yet our days feel rushed, noisy, and scattered. We read a verse here and there, but we rarely slow down long enough to let the Word sink beneath the surface and touch the places that actually need healing and alignment with the Word of God.

That is why Rooted Readings were born as a way of stocking our "worship shelf".

The rhythm is simple:

- Study We slow down and actually look at what the Scripture says.
- Soak We linger with God and let His Word rest on our hearts.
- Surrender We respond honestly, laying down what He surfaces and choosing one small step of obedience.

My prayer is that as you move through each day, God will begin:

- Exposing shallow roots and strengthening true roots
- Uprooting lies and planting truth
- Drawing you from striving into trusting and surrendering

You do not have to show up perfectly. Just show up honestly.

With love, Kara

HOW TO USE THIS 5-DAY SAMPLER

This is not meant to be complicated.
It is meant to be consistent.

Your Daily Rhythm

Each day you will see four simple anchors:

ROOTED READING

The main scripture for the day (KJV).

REST BY THE RIVER

A simple practice to slow down and sit quietly with the Lord.

LOOK AT THE ROOTS

A short note on context, a few key word highlights, and a reflection question.

LAY IT AT HIS FEET

A journal prompt, prayer starter, and one small Step of obedience.

ROOTED READING

Rooted and built up in Him.

Colossians 2:6-10 (KJV)

PLANTED CHRIST

LOOK AT THE ROOTS

In this letter, Paul is writing to believers who had truly received Christ, but were being pulled toward other teachings, philosophies, and religious additions. They were tempted to mix Jesus with other "wisdom."

Paul reminds them: You started with Christ-stay rooted in Him.

Lord, today I surrender this area where I have been walking in my own strength:
ONE ROOTED RESPONSE
Choose one "extra root" (an opinion, influence, habit, or voice) that you will limit today, and decide how you will replace it with time in the Word.
TODAY I WILL LIMIT:
I WILL REPLACE IT WITH:

ROOTED READING

Renewing the mind

Romans 12:1-2 (KJV)

LOOK AT THE ROOTS

After explaining the mercies and grace of God, Paul calls believers to a life that is fully yielded to Him, a living sacrifice. This life looks different from the world around us.

The change does not start in our schedule; it starts in our mind.

TODAY, THE LORD IS INVITING MY MIND TO STAY ON...

"Peace follows a stayed mind.Turn your mind back to Him."

2 UPROOTING A LIE

SURRENDER

LAY IT AT HIS FEET JOURNAL PROMPT
Lord, this is a lie I have been believing:  Show me the truth from your Word.
Be honest, even if the lie feels small, silly, or deeply rooted.
ONE ROOTED RESPONSE
From Romans 12:2, write a truth statement to replace the lie that you've been believing.
My truth statement for today:

"Peace follows a stayed mind.Turn your mind back to Him."

ROOTED READING

Delighted in His law

Psalm 1:1-3 (KJV)

LOOK AT THE ROOTS

This psalm paints a clear contrast: the blessed man and the ungodly. One chases the counsel, paths, and seats of the world; the other turns his attention and affection toward the Word of God.

His life looks like a tree planted by rivers of water.

Trusting God in pressure

Jeremiah 17:5-8 (KJV)

LOOK AT THE ROOTS

Here, the Lord contrasts two kinds of trust:

- Trusting in man and in the arm of flesh
- Trusting in the LORD

One life is dry, parched, and blind to good when it comes. The other is like a well-rooted tree, still green and fruitful even in heat and drought.

REST BY THE RIVER CROSS-REFERENCE RIPPLE

Psalm 27:14 (KJV)

Psalm 37:7 (KJV)

Matthew 11: 28-29 (KJV)

Put a small star next to any word that sounds like rest or waiting.

Then answer in one sentence:

ROOTED WHEN THE WIND BLOWS

SURRENDER

LAY IT AT HIS FEET JOURNAL PROMPT
Lord, I confess I have been trusting in more than in you.
ONE ROOTED RESPONSE

"Waiting is not wasted when it is waiting on God. Choose to be still."

ROOTED READING

Daily cross-bearing

Luke 9:23 (KJV)

LOOK AT THE ROOTS

Jesus does not hide the cost of following Him. He invites everyone, who will come after Him to:

- Deny himself
- Take up his cross daily
- Follow Him

Jesus' way is not a one-time moment; it is a daily walk of surrender that leads to eternal life

WORD FOCUS

DENY (himself)

TAKE UP (his cross daily)

FOLLOW (me)

REFLECTION QUESTION

Where has following Jesus been optional instead of a daily requirement in my life?

Be honest with the Lord and with yourself as you write.

5 SURRENDERED AND SENT

REST BY THE RIVER CROSS-REFERENCE RIPPLE

John 15:4-5 (KJV)

Galatians 2:20 (KJV)

5 SURRENDERED AND SENT

SURRENDER

LAY IT AT HIS FEET JOURNAL PROMPT
"Lord, what one area are You inviting me to obey You in today?"
Listen. Then write what comes to your heart, even if it feels small or scary.
ONE ROOTED RESPONSE
Write one specific step of obedience you will take today. Ask the Lord for grace—and do it before the day ends.

"Branches don't force fruit; they just stay connected and their fruit shows"

5-DAY REFLECTION

WHAT IS GOD ROOTING IN YOU?

Here are a few questions that helped guide me as I looked back over my 5-day study:

- What theme keeps repeating through these five days?
- What did the Lord ask me to surrender?
- How did my time with Him feel different by day 5 compared to at the start of day 1?

PRAYER

Father, we thank you for meeting us in these days of Study, Soak, and Surrender. Thank you for every word you have spoken, every root you strengthened, and every lie that you have exposed.

Help us God, not to forget what you have done. Establish us as a tree planted by still waters, rooted and built up in Christ.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

WHAT'S NEXT? DON'T STOP AT DAY 5

These five days are a beginning, not the end. To keep this rhythm going, you might:

• Choose one day to focus on each week (Planted, Uprooting the Lie, Watered, Rooted in Heat, Surrendered & Sent).

Ask the Lord how He wants you to continue.
