- The costs shown in this example are for educational purposes only and will likely not be your costs.
- All costs are negotiable and should be considered during the listing contract, the buyer brokerage contract, or in the purchase contract.
- Under the new rules Sellers and Buyers are responsible to pay their own brokers. Often the Buyer will request the seller to pay this on their behalf. However, if a Buyer has a Buyer Brokerage agreement with Atomic and buys an Atomic listing, we waive the 3% buyer commission, saving Buyers and Sellers thousands of dollars.
