Christina Levine

Attorney & HR Specialist for the family Office

Christina is a California licensed Attorney and risk advisor for small businesses and household employers. Levine's firm, CPL Crisis Management, assesses risk in the workplace and successfully mitigates it by employing an array of legal strategies and process management tools, such as legally compliant employee handbooks, HR policy evaluations, best practice recommendations for hiring, retaining and terminating staff and on-site workplace investigations.

Christina offers a range of management solutions for the family office, legal, HR, staffing, accounting and insurance, all under one roof. Her firm serves as an all-encompassing advisory team for clients by coordinating their interests for their workplace.
