NON-FICTION

Wise Gals: The Spies Who Built the CIA and Changed the Future of Espionage / by Nathalia Holt

The never-before-told story of a small cadre of influential female spies in the precarious early days of the CIA--women who helped create the template for cutting-edge espionage (and blazed new paths for equality in the workplace) in the treacherous post-WWII era.

Team America: Patton, MacArthur, Marshall, Eisenhower, and the World They Forged / by Robert L. O'Connell

An acclaimed military historian presents this powerful history of four military leaders – Douglas MacArthur, George Patton, George Marshall and Dwight "Ike" Eisenhower – who exhibited unparalleled military leadership that led the U.S. victoriously through two World Wars.

American Sirens: The Incredible Story of the Black Men Who Became America's First Paramedics / by Kevin Hazzard

Up until 1968, if you suffered a medical crisis, your chances of survival were minimal. That all changed with the Freedom House EMS in Pittsburgh, a group of Black men who became America's first paramedics and set the gold standard for emergency medicine around the world, only to have their legacy erased-until now.

Existential Physics: a Scientist's Guide to Life's Biggest Questions / by Sabine Hossenfelder

A contrarian scientist wrestles with the big questions that modern physics raises, and what physics says about the human condition. Not only can we not currently explain the origin of the universe, it is questionable we will ever be able to explain it. Hossenfelder lays out how far physicists are on the way to answering these questions, where the current limits are, and what questions might well remain unanswerable forever.

You Are Not Alone: The NAMI Guide to Navigating Mental Health – With Advice from Experts and Wisdom from Real People and Families / by Ken Duckworth

Written with authority and compassion, this is the essential resource for individuals and families seeking expert guidance on diagnosis, treatment, and recovery, featuring inspiring, true stories from real people in their own words.

Boldly Go: Reflections on a Life of Awe and Wonder / by William Shatner with Joshua Brandon

The beloved star of Star Trek, recent space traveler, and living legend William Shatner reflects on the interconnectivity of all things, our fragile bond with nature, and the joy that comes from exploration in this inspiring, revelatory, and exhilarating collection of essays.

Half American: The Epic Story of African Americans Fighting World War II at Home and Abroad / by Matthew F. Delmont

The definitive history of World War II from the African American perspective, written by civil rights expert and Dartmouth history professor Matthew Delmont.

Need to Know: World War II and the Rise of American Intelligence / by Nicholas Reynolds

A historian and former CIA officer explores the birth, infancy, and adolescence of modern American intelligence during World War II, combining little-known history and gripping spy stories to illuminate its key role in securing Allied victory.

Russia: Revolution and Civil War, 1917-1921 / By Antony Beevor

An epic new account of the conflict that reshaped Eastern Europe and set the stage for the rest of the twentieth century.

The Story of Russia / by Orlando Figes

The Story of Russia is a fresh approach to the thousand years of Russia's history, concerned as much with the ideas that have shaped how Russians think about their past as it is with the events and personalities comprising it.

Illustrated Black History:
Honoring the Iconic and the Unseen / by George
McCalman and April Reynolds

A gorgeous collection of 145 original portraits that celebrates Black pioneers--famous and little-known--in politics, science, literature, music, and more, with biographical reflections, all created and curated by an award-winning graphic designer.

The First Populist: The Defiant
Life of Andrew Jackson / by David S. Brown

A revelatory, timely, and masterful biography of President Andrew Jackson that offers a new perspective on this charismatic figure in the context of American populism--identifying the reasons for his unprecedented appeal as it shows us the man and politician in his full complexity.

Vigilance: The Life of William Still, Father of the Underground Railroad / by Andrew K. Diemer

The remarkable and inspiring story of William Still, an unknown abolitionist who dedicated his life to managing a critical section of the Underground Railroad in Philadelphia--the free state directly north of the Mason-Dixon line--helping hundreds of people escape from slavery.

Becoming FDR: The Personal
Crisis That Made a President /
by Jonathan Darman

Traces the riveting story of the crucible that forged Roosevelt's political ascent. This is the story of a man who found his strong, true self in the depths of a crushing challenge--and re-emerged with wisdom he would use to inspire the world.
