

OCTOBER Non-Fiction

One small act of kindness can change the world. Lady Gaga has always believed in the importance of celebrating individuality, acting with empathy, and being kind to yourself and other. She and her mother, Cynthia Germanotta, founded Born This Way Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to making the world a kinder and braver place. Within these pages you will meet young change makers who found their inner strength, who prevailed in the face of bullies, who started their own social movements, who decided to break through the mental health stigma and share how they felt, who created safe spaces for LGBTQ+ youth, and who have embraced kindness with every fiber of their being by helping others without the expectation of anything in return.-- Adapted from back cover.

"This authoritative, rhythmic picture book biography will captivate young readers with Aretha's inspiring story."

"Going beyond the story of America as a country "discovered" by a few brave men in the "New world," Indigenous human rights advocate Roxanne Dunbar-ortiz reveals the roles that settler colonialism and policies of American Indian genocide played in forming our national identity. The original academic text is fully adapted by renowned curriculum experts Debbie Reese and Jean Mendoza, for middle-grade and young adult readers to include discussion topics, archival images, original maps, recommendations for further reading and other materials to encourage students, teachers, and general readers to think critically about their own place in history"
