ST. MATTHEW 16:23

1164

The transfiguration

from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Pe'ter, Get thee behind me, Sa'tan: thou art an offense unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 Then said Je'sus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

17 And after six days Je'sus taketh Pe'ter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart.

bright cloud overshadowed them; and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Je'sus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Je'sus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Je'sus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that E-li'as must first come?

11 And Je'sus answered and said unto them, E-li'as truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That E-li'as is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

2 Then the disciples understood

Instructions in humility

1165

ST. MATTHEW 18:9

17 Then Je'sus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Je'sus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Je'sus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Je'sus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 And while they abode in Gal'i-lee, Je'sus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And when they were come to Ca-per-na-um, they that received tribute money came to Pe'ter, and said, Doth not your master pay triboffend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

18 At the same time came the disciples unto Je'sus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Je'sus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them.

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that

Expand Your Ministry

A Group Leader's Guide to Faith Based Travel

Christian Travel is a Powerful Resource for Your Ministry

Teach Where Biblical Events Took Place • Pray in Spiritually Moving Places

Explore Places You Have Dreamt About • Read and Discuss the Scriptures Where They Took Place

Share the World with Your Church Members

Reasons Why YOU Should Lead a Faith-Based Tour or Cruise

Train your church leaders the way Jesus did—by teaching and traveling with His disciples.

Empower your sermons with first-hand knowledge gained from your travels.

Shepherd your church members through a tremendous time of renewal.

Become immersed in the values and traditions of the world Jesus knew.

Give your church members a new appreciation for your church roots and heritage.

Offer students and teachers of the Bible the ultimate hands-on learning adventure.

Strengthen family and congregation relationships through a shared journey.

Discover how recent archaeological discoveries continue to reaffirm the truth of the Bible.

Develop a more Christ-like understanding of other cultures and religions.

See your church develop a hunger and thirst for God's Word as never before.

Most tours only involve one Sunday away
from home & church!

Clergy Testimonies

"We celebrated many inspiring worship experiences and had great fellowship and a deep sense of spiritual renewal. Already several of our group members have asked me to plan another trip."

Rev. Dr. Steve Rettenmayer
United Methodist Church
Washington, D.C.

"I experienced a new appreciation for all that Christ did to gain our salvation. The Bible, both O.T. and N.T., came alive as we walked the lands of the Bible. The organization was superb and ALL went so smoothly."

Rev. Albert Bierlein
Emmanuel Lutheran Church
Ft. Wayne, Indiana

"It was the experience of a lifetime. ... It really just brings the Word of God to life."

Rev. Tommy Jackson
New Heights Church
Longview, Texas

"I can't begin to express what a difference my pilgrimage made in my life and in my ministry. For me and our group of pilgrims, it was a spiritual experience we will never forget. The Sacred Scriptures now come alive in a way we never imagined possible. As a result, our entire parish has been enriched. The folks at ETS are wonderful, taking care of all our needs so that we were able to focus on growing more in love with the Lord and His Word."

Father Bill Swengros
Pastor of St. Stephen
Catholic Church
Valrico, Florida

"Since going on this journey, I cannot read the Bible the same anymore. The locations and the settings all mean so much more now and help me to better understand the truth of God's word. Talk to anyone who went on the journey with me and they'll tell you the same thing. It's amazing. This journey was like getting another degree from seminary."

Pastor Mike Landry
Sarasota Baptist Church
Sarasota, Florida

Spiritual Formation Through Christian Travel

By Pastor William (Bill) Barnes

“I regard Christian travel as an absolutely essential part of my ministry.”

For 25 years I have been leading members and friends of my churches on Spiritual Formation tours. People who travel with me gain a new perspective on discipleship as believers. Without exception, these pilgrims return home more engaged in worship, Bible study, service, and giving. New and existing relationships grow stronger and leaders are developed.

There are a variety of destinations and modes of travel to experience. I have led groups to the Holy Land, Egypt, Jordan, Greece, Turkey, the Passion Play and more. No matter where we go, I see the same outcomes:

- The time we spend together allows me to really get to know my members.
- Seeing ancient sites, standing on holy ground, reading the Bible, praying, and receiving Holy Communion where Jesus, Paul, and other disciples walked and lived are priceless gifts that cannot be duplicated elsewhere.
- Individuals formerly intimidated by Bible study actually become leaders of Bible study groups after returning home.
- Group members develop new friendships that continue to grow after our return.
- This time is an incubator for new, committed leaders in the congregation.

These trips have become easier to plan each year. New travelers eagerly anticipate my annual trips to the Holy Land, and after so many years of positive experiences, I do very little personal recruitment. That is done spontaneously by the hundreds of former tour participants who so passionately and honestly encourage others to take advantage of the opportunity to travel in confidence with fellow members. The response has been so great that I limit the number of participants for each tour so that I can effectively minister to and teach each group of believers.

I encourage you to consider making Christian Travel part of the Spiritual Formation plan at your church. Here are some things to consider:

- Plan ahead. People will need more than a couple months to plan for 7-12 days away from their regular schedule and to make financial plans.
- Announce that this is a time for Spiritual Formation and not just a vacation so that no one is surprised and they prepare for the trip appropriately.
- Consider travel as a change of pace for a retreat you have held elsewhere. Travel ministry is the same concept as retreat ministry.
- Prepare what you will teach on each tour but be ready to take advantage of many unplanned teaching moments.
- Schedule a series of travel opportunities; this is better than a one-time special event. A trip every 12-18 months can be very effective and allow more people to participate.
- Visit different locations and vary the program. Some people may travel more than once, and people have different time and financial resources available.
- Work with a reputable Christian travel company that can handle all the details of the trip from start to finish. Not all travel companies provide the same level of service. The process can be very easy with the right help.

Don't be surprised when you are changed by these trips. The Spiritual Formation growth that occurs through Christian travel is not limited to the passengers; these trips are an important factor in my personal growth, Biblical understanding, and worldview. Sometimes I wonder who receives more from my trips: the first time participants or the seasoned pastor who leads them!

William S. Barnes recently retired as Lead Pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Orlando, Florida in July 2015. He is founder of Shepherd's Hope, a faith-based volunteer health care organization for the uninsured. Bill has led groups on Christian travel tours for over 25 years.

Educational Travel Services

The Leader in Faith Based Travel Since 1974

Since it's founding, over 40 years ago, ETS has maintained the goal of making it possible for every Christian Leader to experience the Lands of the Bible. Traveling to the places you have read about your whole life will give you first-hand knowledge and insight that cannot be gained any other way. Through our Earned Tour Conductor program, leaders earn travel credits to make this experience completely free when traveling with a group of 10 or more.

ETS' Humble Beginning

- ETS was founded by a Pastor who returned from the Holy Land so inspired by his time in the land, he made it his goal to help all Pastors make the pilgrimage.
- In 1974, the company's first year, ETS served 500 people working out of a young pastor's garage.
