

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 2024

T'was the last sale before Christmas, and quite a full house.
With a long list of names, auctioneers mispronounced.

All brand inspectors were cranky and vets running late.
Feed and water in all pens, with correct mail on the gate.

The cafe was a cooking the variety breakfast for many.
And office gals in ugly sweaters, having as good a time as any.

Inside the ring sat seven cow buyers.
With cow after cow they fought to acquire.

At noon there was offered, bred cattle for sale.
Hands shot in the air, this auction can't fail.

The head count wound down, at zero it laid.
To the window buyers went and sellers to be paid.

We'll leave Draven on load out for all you to hear,
"From Lemmon Livestock Auction, Merry Christmas to all and Happy New Year!"
