

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2024:

Lean beef continues to be in high demand as market cows and bulls continue to hold steady. The good cows weighing 1500-1600# traded upwards of $2000 per head. Exposed cows drew some attention but when push came to shove they found a home mostly with the packing companies, which is an indication that they are needing them. Bold prediction on conception is that the breed up is going to be good because most bulls that came through look like they've been working hard this season. Had a decent run of tested open heifers and a few lighter steers. Lemmon Junior Livestock is this weekend at Lemmon Livestock, come support the future of agriculture!
