

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2024:

Large number of weigh-up cows and bulls with a limited amount of tested open heifers held the market steady throughout the day. Lower corn prices continue to help the feeding cow market while the low cattle population generates bullish tendencies. As stated before, buy low and sell high, if you got 'em bring 'em. Next week over 3,000 head of calves will sell on Wednesday and weigh-ups will sell Thursday. Still seeing a gap between heifer calves and steer calves but it will grow together as the season goes on. Producers can help that by giving a 7-way, 5-way, and Pasteurella in the spring and the fall. Consignments for the THANKSGIVING Bred Heifer and Stock Cow Sale have been coming in, keep an eye on the website for more information.
