

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2024:

Optimism continues to be the word people use to describe the cattle industry. Everybody seems excited for the Dakota's and their politicians being selected into prominent roles of the future administration. Market was steady to slightly lower on the cows but gained momentum as the day progressed and ended competitively. Calf run was small but mighty today with little to no variation away from price in steers weighing 510-535 pounds that had multiple shots plus boosters no matter what size of group they came in.
