

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2024:

There's been a lot of hot air blowing around the country and I'm not just talking about the coffee crew at the Lemmon Livestock Cafe. The Indian Summer has had its way with pastures and crops the last week forcing some cattle off of dry ground early. The weigh-up market was steady to lower caused primarily by lower volume. Next week is expected to pick up in both. A light test on yearlings held their own in the market and the first groups of calves did as well.
