

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 2025

Market cows and bulls saw a spike in price this week and it carried on throughout the day. Majority of the cows today had been on a feed ration and carried medium flesh. There is always anxiety with a high market as to where it will go and when it'll change direction. After driving around the countryside there is a possible answer. Not a single producer has stated that they are overstocked. Cattle herds are down and rebuilding at a slower rate than normal. Packers need meat now and it seems the producer is in the driver seat.
