

LEMMON LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 2024:

There was a light test on market cows and bulls with no heiferettes and limited cowettes. For the second week in a row the market cows traded for a little lower but the lean bulls remained steady. It seems like any bull weighing over 2200# is really making a splash in the market report. Loads of yearlings came off dry country where as one buyer put it, "The cattle had to pack their own lunch when they got turned out on grass." But quality always sells and the market on yearling steers and open heifers was remarkably strong.
