REAL? OR JUST PRETEND.

Back in the old days, as all us older folks will tell y'all, our movies was just good stories made more on the cheap, since I don't much remember too much of them giant "special effects" gizmos back then. Of course I do remember flying saucer movies a time or two, but that gets me off the subject a tad so let's rope me back into what I was tryin' to talk about here.

What I'm rememberin' right now is that time I took my Saturday night date to a picture show that to my surprise turned out to be one of them Bible movies. Of course I already knew where the story was goin' since I'd heard it all in Sunday school and church whilst growin' up, so I wasn't too happy to have to sit through all that again with my date, since the mood of that movie made her just brush me off when I'd tried to slip my arm around her shoulder.

"Even if I was at it long enough to get myself brainwashed, that little flicker of memory would always be there to remind me I was just tryin' to believe in make believe."

But let's get back to things here. I guess all that brings me to the next part of this story where, as a young man tryin' to figger out ever'thing in this ol' world I figgered it was about time to find out if all that Sunday School Bible stuff was real. Or if it was just some old timey bedtime stories to give some comfort to us poor souls tryin' to live in this wild and crazy world of us.

When a feller gets old enough to hear ever'body's gods is different and people who believe in them can't seem to see eye to eye on anything about 'em—then I knew it was time for me to figger out this mess for myself since now I'd got wise enough to know the religion I grewed up with was just local notions that the rest of the world had no interest in, since they was satisfied with their own notions they was happy to believe in.

So there does come a day when a young man has got to figger out what he wants his head to believe in. And that day did come, for t'was on that very day that I decided to decide what to believe. Since I thought it would be the spiritual thing to do, I packed up my Army pup tent and went off to a hilltop outside of town. Then, my spiritual plan was to not eat food or drink water for three days. I would just spend them three days, night and day, asking this God of ever'body to just show up and let me know who He is. Or ain't.

I don't know how I come up with the idea that no food and no water was to make ever'thing more spiritual, but anyhow, that was the plan. No food. No water.

So for the longest days and nights of my life, I spent day and night bumblin' around that hilltop by myself and talkin' to whoever might be listenin'. Oh, and this part—I brung a little Bible with me and would ever once in a while start reading it out loud to myself. And to anybody else who was listenin'.

But after them three days of forever, I was happy to know time was up and I could now go back to town and get somethin' to eat and drink, even tho' bein' hungry had sort of died off along the way.

Back in civilization, ever'thing sounded louder to my ears after all that no eatin' and no drinkin'. But when I went straight to a local restaurant, ordered a meal, and started takin' little bites, which bit by bit started wakin' my belly up again—it was only then when my brain began to come back a tad. That's when I began to remember no god had showed up back at the tent. So I figgered I'd answered that question. But

SHOW OF SHOWS!

If you haven't been here before—these pages should give you control of the choices you've got for some mighty good times!

But if you have been here before, yet not for awhile—like maybe not even since before winter—can you believe what they've done with the place?

Old things have either gone off into the sunset, gotten shiny new facelifts, or have been transforming into new stuff for fun! Not only that—a brand new crop of spectacular eye-poppers and jaw-droppers have already sprung up all over!

What we've got going on here is something like that foreign word from our history books that they taught us back in grade school—a renaissance, which translates about the same as that Bible notion "born again!"

But let's not panic. 'Tho much has changed—for the better, we should add)—the main things many folks have always appreciated about this place remain alive and well today. What we speak of are the values celebrated here—be they celebrated on stage with music, song and dance, or expressed everywhere folks eat, shop, stay or play. Of course it's those Great American values of faith, family and flag that we're referring to here. At times like these, that's the breath of fresh air we all need—that extra boost not even the lovely surrounding mountains, lakes and outdoor fun can provide alone—but the boost that breathes extra life into it all!

To summarize—each one of us here have landed in a wonderful place to recharge our human batteries—a place that provides a full buffet of excitement and fun, a setting for relaxation and rejuvenation—and even a heart-stirring boost of inspiration!

That all being said, browse these pages. Obviously, there's too much fun here to do all in one trip. You'll have to come back. But for now, just choose your fun, kick back—and enjoy the show! ♦ for the time being I didn't much care. I cared more about food and water.

So but afterwards, I didn't actually become a atheist where I didn't believe in anything. To be honest, I still did kinda believe somebody was up there watchin' ever'thing. I just didn't seem to worry about it anymore. I figgered we'd just find all that out when we got there.

Now but then let's just jump ahead to another time in my life when things changed. I found myself lyin' in my bed one sunny morning. I'd decided to pick up a little Bible I'd got given as a little feller in Sunday School. I then read me a little Bible story or two. After reading awhile, I told myself I'd give my whole life to church if I could believe all them stories. I'd go ever' Sunday. I'd pray. I'd listen to all them sermons. I'd decide to believe 'em. Then I'd become a believer like the rest of 'em. Maybe if I'd just hunker down and be with 'em all long enough, I'd end up in "the club" so to speak.

But inside I'd always know I was a fake. Even if I was at it long enough to get myself brainwashed, that little flicker of memory would always be there to remind me I was just tryin' to believe in make believe. Just a fairy tale to give us some hope and comfort in this wild and crazy world. But I'd give anything if I could just believe in the God of that little Bible of mine. I'd even give my life to it if that's what it took.

Since it was a sunny Saturday morning, I decided it was time to quit hurtin' my brain thinkin' on all that. It was time to get up, feed the hogs, hay the horses and milk the cows. T'was time to start my day and start the animals day.

But something happened. I started to get up, but something stopped me. Then something else happened. He revealed

IT'S A HAPPY BIRTHDAY SEASON 66 FOR BRANSON'S FIRST SHOW!

BRANSON'S FAMOUS
BALDKNOBBERS

Now Performing At

Way back yonder in 1959 (66 years ago), when them tourist folks were pouring into Branson, Missouri to enjoy the mountains, lakes and fun spots here for swimming, fishing, boating and mountaineering, there honestly wasn't much to do for fun after the sun went down. That's when this talented Mabe family thought to put a show together and entertain those needy folks with some good ol' mountain music from these Ozarks, some hillbilly comedy, and some of the heart and soul of these parts—that being faith in God, love of family and devotion to our Star Spangled Banner!!

Every 66th season since—this show has clung to all that. But here's the catch: the family values of this entertaining Mabe family have included striving to top themselves every season, and even every performance! That's why generations of us folks have never stopped coming back to this show—well, since many of us even showed up on this earth! Yes, each show satisfies our traditional leanings, yet it never stops dazzling us by raising the bar with the music and comedy of these entertaining times we live in today!

The fact that a live show performing to audiences almost every night, almost every month, almost every year for an unprecedented sixty-five years is an accomplishment that in the world of show business is absolutely, positively and historically—well, like we've already said—it's unprecedented! Not even the legendary Sons of the Pioneers, nor The Rockettes of New York's Radio City Music Hall have kept up with The Baldknobbers schedule, even though they too have endured for decades!

Now we begin to understand why Branson's Famous Baldknobbers were enshrined in an historic display at The Smithsonian Museum, the keeper of our national treasures in Washington, DC! (Those treasures include The Wright Brothers' first aeroplane, Lindbergh's Spirit of St. Louis, George Washington's uniform and Dorothy's ruby slippers from The Wizard of Oz, to name a few!)

THE 2025 PRODUCTION

Heading up the show is Brandon Mabe, son and grandson of the family that "started it all". At Brandon's side is his lovely wife, leading lady, and Branson's 2021 Female Vocalist of the Year Megan Mabe!

Backing up this dynamic duo is a posse of multi-award-winning musicians and vocalists, plus a hilarious country comedian! Topping it all off is the show's huge new production enhancements of sound, lights and whiz-bang special effects!

Expect top country hits, (including some of that "outlaw country" with "attitude"), traditional country favorites, southern rock, soft rock, old time rock n' roll, bluegrass,

THE TAKE-AWAY

It's unheard of for a show to stay popular for over 60 years. That is an historical fact. But this isn't just a show with a history. Whenever the curtain rises, this show aims to make history! ♦

THE VINTAGE BALDKNOBBERS SHOW

WOW! Original songs, music, comedy and even COSTUMES and SETS from vintage versions of Branson's first show—all the way from the 60s, 70s thru the 90s! We're talkin' sequins, shoulder pads, fringe—the works! Plus of course, the country classics and funny business that sparked the Branson explosion that turned our small Ozarks village into the Showtown we see today!

Here's our big chance to experience the spark that blew up into a national and even international sensation! For The Baldknobbers cast, this show is the joy of their lives. “I grew up with this show,” says Brandon Mabe, fourth generation member of the family that “started it all”. “This is a tribute to my family. I'm doing two songs from my late Uncle Dennis (Mabe) who I adored growing up. Everything in this show is a tribute to all those who came before us. It's what helped shape us to who and what we are. It's our attempt to pay respects to that. It's what started everything we see in Branson today.”

“Our passion is to carry on what was handed down to us. The history, how it evolved—for us it's paying tribute and honoring all the Baldknobbers performers who came before us. Even though we weren't there in 1959 or 1989, we want to make sure people see how special it is, as we help carry it on and hopefully hand it to someone else to carry on further.” ♦

MIRACULOUS MOMENTS

As we set out to begin another show season in Branson—our 66th Baldknobbers' season to be exact—I feel it only fair to pay homage to the two months each year that allow us to refresh and re-engage. January and February—known by the entertainment community as “off-season”—provides just enough time to take a breath, escape the stage lights and remind ourselves why we do what we do.

Off-season is sacred. Essential. Special. It's the chance to step outside the fences of a show schedule and play “normal”. We take trips. We watch prime-time television. We catch our kids' games and activities. We experiment just long enough in the nine-to-five world that by the time March rolls around, we are ready to jump back into the creative crazy of show business. It's where we belong.

While we pack as much “everyday” into off-season as we possibly can, we also sprinkle in performance opportunities that we aren't able to fit in while doing a full show schedule. Throughout the past two months, my husband and I have performed in nursing homes, on a cruise ship and across multiple states for various special events. We have performed from Florida to the Bahamas to Philadelphia. A lot of driving, a lot of flying and a lot of “aha” moments.

Through all of our travel and performances, I have been reminded firsthand that music truly is universal. It's a cliché statement, but it couldn't have shown itself to me more clearly than throughout the past several weeks. I've been left with a heightened awareness that, while easy to forget while in the grind of a show season, what we do comes with a responsibility. God has given us entertainers talents that provide a service to our audience members, and we need to take our job seriously.

Music brings a collective joy. It bonds people. It is a common language. Music is healing. It is therapeutic.

Music can be quite miraculous.

While we were performing for nursing homes last month, I watched an Alzheimer's unit transform after just one hour of music. When we arrived, the room was quiet and unresponsive. The residents were having dinner, and quite frankly, I don't think they were eager for our interruption. There was no conversation, and the sound of scraping utensils was deafening. Melancholy covered the room.

Oh, but what music can do!

By the time we left, there was new life. The residents started singing and clapping. One resident, despite normally relying on her walker, started dancing. The nurse informed us afterward that she had not stood unassisted or been that responsive in weeks. A whole group of individuals struggling to remember pieces of daily life found the familiar in music. They found the joy. They may not have been able to tell me what day

ELVIS '68 COMEBACK! —

Ladies and gentlemen—friends... live on stage, here he is, the One and Only... (a drum-roll) The King himself... and folks, you can feel it, that showbiz earthquake the moment this recreated performance of the Legend of Legends hits the stage! Yes, it's Elvis himself, Elvis channeling his legendary and even historic world-wide television performance of 1968—one of the only TV audiences nearly as big as the day Man first stepped on the Moon! For an experience that gives us a taste of that legendary performance—here's our ticket! Warning: Expect goosebumps!!! (thanks to Elvis tribute artist Ryan Pelton!)

WILLIE NELSON! —

If ever there was an adored entertainer who literally sailed through a wide landscape of musical genres—country, (and crossover) singer Willie Nelson has been pretty much that guy. To think of Willie is to think of Country, Outlaw Country, and all kinds of music in-between, (Pop, Blues and even Jazz included!) Among his many memorable hits—Crazy, Hello Walls, On the Road Again, To All the Girls I've Loved Before, Pancho & Lefty, Blue Eyes Crying in the Rain, Always on My Mind—all of it being music, and a voice that has transcended the generations. (Kudos to tribute artist Terry Johnson for making it happen for us!)

ADELE! —

Experience the incredible singer and songwriter from Great Britain who fast became a global sensation at the tender age of 19, (the title of her first blockbuster album). That debut album resulted in two chart toppers, Chasing Pavements and Make You Feel My Love plus a Grammy Award for Best New Artist! But that was just the beginning! Her next album (21), released at the age of (you guessed it—twenty-one) fast became the best selling album of the 21st century—31 million copies! That, plus topping Billboard's 200 for an historic 24 weeks—the longest for a female artist ever! And yet there's more—for she also became the first female artist in Billboard history to have 3 simultaneous top ten singles—Rolling in the Deep*, Someone Like You and Set Fire to the Rain. Enough already. Just come experience some of the most popular music of the 21st century—live on stage! (A round of applause for tribute artist Janae Longo!)

ELVIS: Las Vegas Era! —

Just mentioning the title of this Elvis performance instantly makes just about every one of our heads hear Elvis singing Viva Las Vegas! To be honest, that song added yet another musical legend to the repertoire of this historic global superstar! (A few memory triggers from that era being Suspicious Minds, In the Ghetto, Can't Help Falling in Love, Memories etc. etc! As for being what the press called “the King of Las Vegas”, well, Sinatra was a legend, but Elvis was a happening! Some of the biggest stars in showbiz joined crowds at his every performance! In fact, crowds swarmed to the city whenever he was booked! Not only a legendary rock 'n roll icon, his movie stardom dominated decades, especially those classics with his legendary co-star Ann Margret! (Memory triggers from that long list of Hollywood classics; Love Me Tender, GI Blues, Blue Hawaii and yeah, Viva Las Vegas! (Again, thanks to acclaimed Elvis tribute artist Ryan Pelton for making it all happen!)

THE BLUES BROTHERS! —

Of course back by eternally popular demand are those furiously dancing and soulfully singing hipsters from Chicago—the fabulous Blues Brothers! Honestly, who can resist getting goosebumps at seeing the almost rubber-like moves this dancing duo channels while singing their signature hit: Soul Man, Sweet Home Chicago, Rawhide and Gimmie Some Lovin'!

Warning! These guys will wanna make us get up and dance! (thanks to tribute stars Clint Nievar & Justin Sassanella!) ♦

Early on, Larry caught the attention of Dottie West, Kris Kristofferson and Johnny Cash. Impressed with Larry's singing and song-writing talent, all three helped open doors for the young artist. Joined by his brothers, Larry and the Gatlins were soon rolling out the Grammy award-winning hits—Broken Lady, All the Gold in California, Houston (Means I'm One Day Closer to You), and so many more. Larry describes the group's latest releases as "A little bit edgy. We don't like to play it safe!"

ELVIS LIVE! Starring Elvis' Cousin JERRY PRESLEY & THE TCB GROUP*!

(The Only Elvis Performer encouraged by Elvis himself!)

Wow! Three full-blown productions of authentic Elvis shows—complete with the Elvis entourage of keyboards, horns, electrics, percussion—and of course his legendary Gospel backup group! Anyone of any generation who never knew how insanely awesome an Elvis concert was—here's your ticket to rock 'n roll heaven! The most common reaction (and quote) from fans "in the know" is this: "It's the most authentic Elvis show I've ever seen!"

What other Elvis performer is related to Elvis three ways, hung out with Elvis, was encouraged by Elvis, attended over a dozen Elvis concerts and even served in the Army like Elvis? But folks, that's not all! Like Elvis—Cousin Jerry even has a twin brother!

Says Jerry, "I'm not an impersonator. I'm a family member doing the songs of Elvis and I try to keep it as authentic as I can. You will never see me do things that Elvis didn't do."

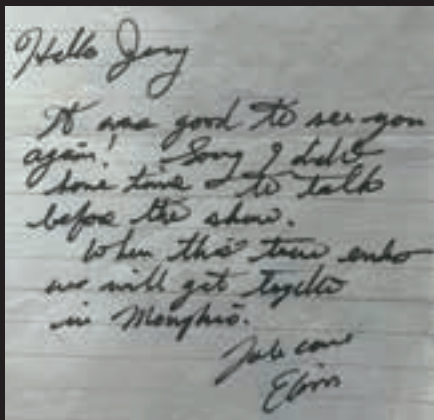

Elvis couldn't have found a better guy to carry on his legacy. A devout Christian, Jerry's life hasn't suffered the turbulence that befell Elvis—yet the kindness, respect, generosity and even heart for God that Elvis was known for—is alive and well in cousin Jerry Presley—the one we believe to be very much the keeper of the flame. ♦

Elvis & Jerry

- Jerry is related to Elvis 3 ways • He was one of the first Elvis tribute artists out there • Elvis's Manager Colonel Parker disapproved of Jerry • Elvis came to Jerry's rescue, encouraging him • Jerry attended over 13 Elvis

- concerts • He met Elvis at Graceland • He treasures several gifts Elvis gave him • He met briefly with Elvis backstage in June of '77 • In August, he received a note from Elvis apologizing for the short meeting and inviting him back to Graceland • Days later, Elvis died • At Graceland after the funeral, Jerry ran into Elvis's Dad Vester sitting on the stairs. "I guess it will never be the same around here anymore," said Jerry. With tears in his eyes, Vester answered, "No, Son, I guess it never will be." • "Elvis was a humble guy," says Jerry. "He didn't put himself up on a pedestal. He loved people. He was such a giving person. There will never be another Elvis."

Jerry with Elvis's original backup group The Jordanaires.

G.I. BLUES! Like Elvis, Jerry also served in our United States Army!

Jerry and Elvis

- Jerry is the only authentic relative of Elvis, (2nd Cousin) who is performing Elvis shows.
- Jerry launched Branson's first Elvis show in 1984, building his own theater and naming it "The King's Mansion", designing the front of the building to look like Elvis's home Graceland.
- Jerry is the only Elvis performer who, in a period of over 26 years, has traveled and performed with Elvis' original backup singers The Jordanaires, The Stamps Quartet and The Blackwoods!
- After the untimely passing of Elvis, Jerry, being part of Elvis' extended family, acquired a vast collection of Elvis's personal possessions, some of which appear on display in Jerry Presley's God & Country Theater. Among those possessions are personal letters to Jerry from Elvis.
- Jerry is the only Elvis performer who has been with Elvis, had conversations with Elvis, received personal letters from Elvis—and, well—is family!

MUSIC, AND A LIFE, THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING! CARPENTERS ONCE MORE

If we stop and listen to the music serenading us these days, whether it be on the radio, at the shopping mall, the hair salon or on earphones plugged into whatever they're plugged into—we will no doubt hear an awful lot of The Carpenters once more. Bringing to life these musical treasures that generations of us all love is multi-award winning singing star Diana Lynn. We have much to say about Diana, but first, let's address the shocking Carpenters story.

About The Carpenters

Unusually, Karen Carpenter was both a singer and a drummer. She and her brother Richard, (The Carpenters) used their own voices to create multi-track masterpieces that dominate the airwaves even to this day.

A few examples: (They Long To Be) Close to You, We've Only Just Begun, Top of the World, Hurting Each Other, Merry Christmas Darling, and so many more.

The Shock!

When Karen's young life succumbed to the effects of anorexia nervosa at the tender age of 33, the world was shocked. Until then, the eating disorder, (anorexic) was largely unheard of among the general public. But that was then and this is now. It was the tragic loss of Karen Carpenter that educated us all. It literally changed the world.

We've Only Just Begun!

The show begins with a gentleman taking a seat at the piano to portray Karen's brother Richard Carpenter. He begins to play. Then we hear the real Karen Carpenter begin to sing. Diana suddenly appears and Karen's voice becomes hers. It's seamless. Does Diana look like Karen? Well, somewhat, for her clothing style could definitely have parachuted in from Karen's 1970s wardrobe closet, but it's the voice, the stage presence and the captivating personality that draws us into the amazing talent of Karen Carpenter channeled by the amazing talent of Diana Lynn!

The Dream

Diana grew up in a family of entertainers and has been an entertainer all her life. Her showbiz experience comes across the moment she takes the stage, for her sunny personality, both warm and upbeat, is literally contagious. Audiences love her.

Throughout her life, Diana has performed in shows of every kind. But her lifelong inspiration, was Karen Carpenter. She and Karen both share the same vocal range. Says Diana, "I always say, I was taught by Karen Carpenter. And I've always dreamed of doing a show of her music."

It's obvious, Karen was taught good. And some dreams do come true. ♦

THE AMAZING CAST!

A HEARTFELT EMOTIONAL TRIBUTE

11 PIECE ALL-STAR BAND!

417-46-4TIXS

HIT SHOW RETURNS WITH BAND OF ALL-STARS!

As might be guessed by all genuine Branson Insiders, Keith's return is in the company of his lovely wife Diana Lynn, who opens her own award-winning Carpenters Once More show at the same power-packed performance venue as her husband—namely, Jerry Presley's God & Country Theatre! (More about Diana's show on the previous page)

After packing out performance venues throughout North America for the past two years, world renown Neil Diamond tribute artist Keith Allyn has landed once again in the town where adoring fans flocked to his show (A Neil Diamond Tribute) for a whopping ten years straight!

But wait—this time, the fans are in for a surprise, for now Keith is backed up by a band of all-star musicians who, like Keith, are legendary performers in their own right! (More on that a tad later.) But as we probably too often like to say—“folks, that’s not all!”

10 PIECE ALL-STAR BAND!

Some in Keith's backup band have played with Andy Williams, some with Ray Charles, Tony Orlando—and the list just goes on and on. In conclusion: these backup A-listers have SO got Keith's back!

WHO'S NEIL DIAMOND?

When you hear the songs he wrote and sang—our guess is that you'll find yourself singing along and knowing the words that you never even knew you knew! Prediction: at the end of this show, you'll be on your feet singing your heart out. And at this particular time in our world, you may have to fight to hold back tears. More on that later. Here are some of Neil's songs which create the soundtrack of our lives: Cherry, Cherry, Sweet Caroline, I am, I said, Solitary Man, Cracklin' Rosie, Holy, Holy, Shilo, Soolaimon, Brother Love's Traveling Salvation Show, Hello Again, Forever in Bluejeans, Song Sung blue, Pretty Amazing Grace, and one we are saving for the end of this story. Stay tuned.

WHO'S KEITH ALLYNN?

Besides being an amazing Neil Diamond tribute artist, Keith Allyn is one of the most captivating entertainers you are likely to ever experience. Entertaining is not just his vocation—it's his lifelong passion. He's brilliant, he's warm, he's funny, he's full of mesmerizing Neil Diamond stories, and he literally “owns” not only the stage, but the hearts of most all of us audience types. Example: He recently performed a one-nighter for 5,000 people. No band. Just him and a guitar. The audience was so overwhelmed, the venue pleaded that Keith would stay for another show. Then another. 5,000 packed out each one. That says it all.

END OF STORY

At the show's finale, drums begin pounding. On screen is a flag waving. Keith begins singing—“Far, we've been traveling far, without a home, but now without a star. Free, only want to be free, we huddle close, hang on to a dream. On the boats and on the planes, they're coming to America. Never looking back again, they're coming to America. Home, don't it seem so far away, Oh, we're traveling light today, in the eye of the storm, in the eye of the storm. Freedom's light burning warm. Got a dream to take them there, they're coming to America. Got a dream they've come to share, they're coming to America. My Country 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing—”

During these times in which we live, the words, the music, of Neil Diamond's America—resonates deep in our heart of hearts. The drums are pounding as the music swells, the audience rising to their feet. Many are wiping away tears. There is scarcely a dry eye in the house. End of story. ♦

Himself to me. God did. In broad daylight.

I ain't gonna tell you how He did it. You'd just think it was a fairy tale. Or you'd wonder why He didn't show up for you the way He did for me. I don't know. Maybe I was just so hard-headed, I needed to be clobbered like that, which is what we had to do with our stubborn ol' mules back in the day.

But now here's the end of the story. Truth be told, that was the beginning. Ever since that Saturday morning once't upon a time, I'm a believer. From that day to this very day, I know Who God Is. He's The God of that Bible of ours.

Yes, friends. I know that may sound churchy and religious, but I'm here to tell you all, hand on the Bible, that the God of that book is Who He says He is! But here's the crazy thing that makes no sense—even though He proves Himself to be true by answering prayers—I sometimes still go in and out of putting my trust in Him in this wild and crazy world! But whenever I don't, I have to remind myself of that moment, that day when He revealed Himself to my sorry ol' self. As He has pretty much done ever since!

The moral of this story is that He wouldn't show up that time I spent three days on a hilltop just to see if He would. But when my heart's desire was to give my whole life to Him, as He did for me—then show up He did! For real.

Now below is a few Bible verses what add some proof to my tale for you all this day. My prayer for you is that God will bless you with a life with Him, as He has done with this sorry ol' piece of work that He has pity on and has to rein-in like a buckin' bronco almost ever' day. That be pretty much like so many of us has done with our youngin's, who we can't stop lovin' to the moon and back, no matter how ornery they sometimes is.

OK. Scripture time. A few to maybe help this all makes sense. ♦

Come back November/December for Ozark Mountain Christmas!

WHERE COUNTRY MEETS ROCK N' ROLL!

Nashville Roadhouse LIVE! starring Stevie Lee Woods:

The music, the dancing, the incredible showmanship, the spectacular lighting, sound, stage sets—this production, trust us here, is about as elaborate as a Hollywood spectacle, a sold-out arena, or a Super Bowl halftime show! Yet we get to experience it up close and personal!

Every singer and musician on stage has a boatload of awards—yet they make what they do look so easy! Not only are they fluently brilliant—they are completely into entertaining us! Every second all are absolutely dialed in to having fun with us audience types!

As for the music, it's mind-blowing musicianship and a visual feast of boot-scootin-cowgirls, poodle-skirt Rock 'N Rollers and stunning ballet that literally takes the breath away!

ABOUT STEVIE LEE WOODS

He's charted hits all the way to #1 (Is there anything left?) for example—and for years was the likes of Lorrie Morgan, Martina McBride, Dunn, Diamond Rio and just about everyone in-between. On stage, he's explosive—consuming it like a hybrid of Mick Jagger, Garth Brooks and maybe even Brooks & Dunn.

Much of this comes from the fact that Stevie's showbiz roots run deep. His Dad played guitar with the legendary Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs, then later with fellow legend Eddy Arnold. Besides charting country hits, Stevie also hosted Today's Hot Country on TV's Nashville Network. Looks like the wheel is coming full circle! ♦

Photos by Jennifer Grant

Also at Nashville Roadhouse Theatre:

Sade Shine: Queens of Soul!

Sade Shine, (pronounced "Shar-day" Shine), has been captivating audiences ever since her early days singing in church at the age of six!

After years in Branson's Motown Downtown show, Sade this season headlines her own! Queens of Soul is a tribute to such music legends as Aretha Franklin, Gladys Knight, Etta James, Whitney Houston and more! Not only is Sade the first African American woman to own her own production in Branson, she has also been nominated for Female Vocalist of the Year and Best Little Show! Now that's a star!

A Garth Tribute

When our Oklahoma neighbor Garth Brooks hit the country/rock music scene, it was nothing less than a tornado, (as was obvious with his hit song "Ropin' the Wind")

As for some memory triggers, how about "No Fences", "The Chase", "In Pieces", "Friends in Low Places" "The Thunder Rolls", "In Another's Eyes", (a duet with his country superstar wife Trisha Yearwood), and the list goes on and on, as does the list of his awards, some being Country Music Hall of Fame, Songwriters Hall of Fame, and, well—you name it! Now we get to hear 'em all live on stage, thanks to acclaimed tribute artist Rich Watson! ♦

FUN FOR ALL!

True statement! Fun for guys and gals, kiddos and Grandfolks—the whole enchilada (so to speak). That’s obvious the minute one steps inside this fun spot put together by some of Branson’s most popular locals, who’ve been providing shopping fun in Branson since who knows when!

THE T-SHIRT HEAVEN

Pick any size or color, then pick from a zillion awesome designs (plus entertaining images and statements to appear on them)) or have something made personal—then watch while your T-shirt or sweatshirt is created right in front of you within minutes!

Have fun shopping with these famous fun sisters; owner Jennifer Grant, (right) and Sister Tina Sisco!

CLOTHES!
(His, Hers, Kiddos, Babies!)

ZILLIONS OF DESIGNS!

JAMS & SAUCES!

As for designs—like we’ve said, zillions to choose from! Custom made or ordered in bulk! But that’s just the beginning of this vacation shopping attraction!

THE ULTIMATE SOUVENIR SHOP!

Wow, where do we begin? Before we describe the insides, please note that in the midst of having fun, there are refreshments of snacks and sweets to take care of you. That should add some relaxation to your shopping fun!

So let’s paint a picture here: lots of men’s, women’s, kid’s and baby’s clothing: vacation clothing and more. (Hoodies, jackets, shorts, swimsuits all kinds of stuff!) Note: Those Kansas City Chiefs tumblers are made here. You won’t find them anywhere else. Just sayin’.

Obviously we can’t share all the store insides right here, but some of these pictures might offer some clues. So check out the ad next door, then just go and have yourself some fun—cause you’re on vacation here, right? ♦

Where the Hot Hits live forever!

For the Music and the Memories, you can always go DOWNTOWN! 206 South Commercial Street

The music we still can't resist dancing to—the irresistible music from “the motor city” brought to us by The Temptations, The Four Tops, The Spinners, and even more “golden oldies” from the 60's & 70s!

That unforgettable harmony and street corner music of the 50s & 60s! Music of The Drifters, The Coasters, The Platters, The Cadillacs—you know, all that memorable music we danced to at the “sock hop”—or that the youngsters still listen to today!

For this experience of the “golden sounds” of those rock and roll classics from the 1950s, we also get to experience a performance by Branson legend Eddie Stovall, who has been treating Branson fans to these golden sounds for over 30 years! A performance not to miss!

Acclaimed tribute artist Patsy Montana brings us a classic performance of the legendary country music icon Patsy Cline in a show that not only channels Patsy's hits, but adds a little storytelling –PLUS even some international championship yodeling!

Experience Branson's 2024 Tribute Artist of the Year! He's got the mannerisms, the jokes and banter from Dean's legendary TV show, but best of all, he's got the voice! “Everybody Loves Somebody Sometime!” And that's us, his forever fans!

Some of us rocked to these songs on the jukebox down at our favorite soda fountain or local hangout back in the day! The rest of us know them from our movies and TV shows, or even from still hearing them on the radio. Now we get to hear it all live and in person!

IS LIKE 1980s FUN TO THE MAX!

THE FASHION. THE MUSIC. THE MOVIES. RELIVE THE BEST DECADE EVER!

THE INSIDE SCOOP!

Want some fun for all ages? Well, here you go—that totally awesome Retro Mania at the hub of The Branson Strip! The outside looks interesting, so let's get you the Inside scoop! ('Tis what we do.)

Right away, our eyes behold a whole new world. Yet many of us are not exactly strangers in a strange land. Many of us have been to this world at other points in time and space—but today, here we are—back in the 1980s!

What is unveiled before our eyes is what creative geniuses have built—fantabulous entertainment—awesome stuff to do, (totally), righteously rad stuff to see, bodacious stuff to eat, and stellar 80s stuff to shop through! But people, even that ain't all! The attraction's new bad-to-the-bone eatery, (New Wave Café) will be featuring not only karaoke fun, but incredible live bands playing nothing but classic 80s jams! Woah, dude! That is so fly!

STUFF TO SEE

Hollywood memorabilia—(like Mel Gibson's actual motorcycle from Lethal Weapon 3, or that car out front from RoboCop 2), boatloads of signed boss movie posters and rad record albums (Madonna, Cyndi Lauper, Michael Jackson)—and ka-gillions more—corridors of movie scenes, movie characters and iconic pop stars that, interestingly, are the exact same size as the celebs in real life! Dude, we thought those stars were so humongous, but woah, they're like regular, or even smaller, like us! Trust us, get a picture of you beside some! It's wicked true! As for 80s memory triggers, should we name names? Okay. Top Gun, Flash Dance, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, Batman, Star Wars, Indiana Jones, Terminator, Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure, Footloose, Beetlejuice,—oh, let's go on to music—Bon Jovi, Van Halen, Blondie, ACDC, U2, Prince, MC Hammer, Bruce Springsteen, Whitney Houston, oh duh, this list could go on forever! Just come see it all!

STUFF TO DO

SLASHER'S HAUNTED HOUSE (Gulp), not gonna lie, it's creepy in there! No, nobody's gonna grab you or anything, but walking into scenes from Friday the 13th, or Michael Myers Halloween, or seeing those scenes from Chuckie—well, y'all have fun in there! It's fun walking into Hollywood movie scenes, as long as you can walk out at any time! We promise, hand on the Bible—you can, unless you prefer to just enjoy the creepy stuff as long as you want!

RETRO ROCKER MINI GOLF Play amongst your favorite 80s rock stars, while your ears enjoy a never-ending soundtrack of 80s classics. We've said it before—seeing these characters in almost real life standing before you at their exact height, makes them feel—well, almost like real people. Like the rest of us!

TWO ESCAPE GAMES Fun stuff, but not to panic—technically you can escape at any time, but as all non-scaredy cats know, it's more fun to just try and figure it out!

Escape to the future is based on, yeah, you guessed it—that 80s movie franchise Back to the Future! The other escape game, ALIEN

ENCOUNTER is based on, yeah, you guessed it again—Alien! GREMLIN'S MOVIE THEATRE Grab a bag of popcorn and enjoy an 80s classic—no extra charge. You can even leave and come back to catch a later show—FREE! FREE PLAY ARCADE 80s Arcades, no coins needed! Which is AWESOME!

GIFT SHOP! Nostalgic fashions, toys, games, fun stuff—it's all here, parachuted in from the 80s! Good Times! ♦

"CLICK" TO PAGE 21 FOR THE INSIDE SCOOP!

80's memorabilia everywhere! Killer cuisine! Trust us, you'll want to take a picture of your serving! 80s faves for every taste. (Alcohol also available) And we're saving the best for last, for karaoke is on tap, and live bands playing nothing but 80s hits appear all season!

A WHOLE NEW WORLD! AT BRANSON'S WILD WORLD!

Whether you've been there before, or never before—Season 2025 is a whole new world at Branson's Wild World!

Expect new adventures, stunning new attractions, amazing background music that makes us feel like we're in an epic wildlife adventure, (which, of course actually we are!)—and once again, experience a transformed shopping area whose specialty gifts, toys and education items fulfill us animal lovers' wildest dreams!

Oh, and one more thing—expect new wildlife. Much new wildlife!

HANDS ON

Feed sharks. Real sharks. Get eyeball to eyeball with howling wolves, mountain lions, living dinosaurs—all returning stares mere inches away! Hold a boa. Pet dingos. Enter an undersea world and try a round of mini-golf, while sea creatures swim among you. Or just watch you.

ANOTHER WORLD!

As you will quickly discover during your website investigation, Branson's Wild World is no typical zoo and aquarium attraction. Here, wild animals are not hiding under rocks or snoozing in the dark shadows of some faraway corner. Instead, they inhabit beautifully crafted habitat that keeps them comfortable, active and happy while you visit their spaces—up close. Very up close.

NEW STUFF!

The Abyss: The Search for The Lost City of Atlantis! More crazy-looking sea creatures, like that 20' giant eel, or those 16' manta rays, or that "gulp" monster croc! Lots of new wild and crazy wildlife. Lots of new giant animatronics. Sort of a Disney gone wild. (Our words, not theirs.)

YeeeeEEESH!

SHARK TANK!

Mini-golf the Wild Abyss under the sea, as real creatures swim among you, (real and unreal)—or just watch.

WORLD CHANGERS

All winter long Branson's Wild World transformed the environment of this amazing attraction into an all-encompassing, immersive experience. As far as the scenery and theatrical effects, you might at first feel like you've entered a Disney creation. That notion soon evaporates, as the sights, sounds, and atmospheres transport you beyond the realm of fantasy and imagination and into the very worlds where those wild things dwell — a world you can feel, and even touch.

CREATING ATTRACTIONS WORLDWIDE

The designer, owner and operator of Branson's Wild World is known throughout our wild world as a leading expert in the design of tourist attractions. After creating over 300 different attractions in over thirty countries, St. Louis native James Kelly and his wife Lisa have decided to call Branson home and make Branson's Wild World their labor of love.

A creative visionary much like Disney, James seems to be constantly adding new animals and new attractions to Branson's Wild World. As we studiously observed, he seems very "hands on" and "24-7". We couldn't resist asking him—what's the motivation? More visitors? More money? More fame? More anything?

Snake Hugs!

GLOBETROTTERS!

World renown attractions designer James Kelly & his wife Lisa.

To that, James shook his head "no."

"I do it 'cause it's fun."

And there you have it: the very reason why this place is so fun! ♦

NEW!

Have some hands-on fun with our rare and exotic Lemours! Lemurs (from Latin lemures – ghosts or spirits) are mammals native only to the island of Madagascar. They chiefly live in trees and are active at night.

Until shortly after humans arrived on the island around 2,000 years ago, there were lemurs as large as a male gorilla.

Modern studies of lemurs did not begin in earnest until the 1950s and 1960s. Initially hindered by political issues on Madagascar during the mid-1970s, field studies resumed in the 1980s.

Many lemur species have already gone extinct in the last 2000 years due to human activity. Because of these threats and their declining numbers, environmentalist groups consider lemurs to be the world's most endangered mammals, noting that as of 2013 up to 90% of all lemur species confront the threat of extinction in the wild within the next 20 to 25 years. Many efforts try to preserve lemur habitats as well as promote public awareness and appreciation for lemurs.

LEMUR LOVE!

IT'S GOTTEN WAY WILDER AT BRANSON'S WILD WORLD!

Thanks to Wild Valley

NEW Outside Foot Safari!
Wilder Animals. No Extra Charge!

UP CLOSE & PERSONAL!

Yes, all of us can get as close to lions and tigers as caretaker Efrain Malagon, who is seen here offering free head massages to two takers—yet alas, a see-through protective shield now keeps the rest of us from offering that service. But we still get to cozy up.

A young adventurer poses for his Mom, (plus our paparazzi) while on safari at Branson's Wild World. (Note the curious passenger in the back of the SUV. Yikes.) But fear not, visitors can safely pose for this "money shot" with their ferocious hitchhikers thanks to a sturdy glass barrier. Whew!

PHOTO OPS!

Shocking news: Just now, for no extra charge, we can step into a lovely new outdoor safari at Branson's Wild World,—and get face to face and eyeball to eyeball with some lovable lions, tigers, wolves, cougars, jackals, dingoes, arctic foxes and more! Goosebump alert: These animals are adorable—until it suddenly dawns on one's self that folks like us, to them, could look kinda delicious!

Welcome to Wild Valley—the outdoor world of the indoor Branson's Wild World!

Follow us as we step outside of Branson's Wild World and enter a wild valley where we can get inches away from some magnificent beasts. By the time we read this, however, a beast-resistant see-thru super shield will keep our flesh from their paws, claws and jaws. So now we can safely charm them with sweet talk and stare admiringly into their deep, alluring eyes. And watch them stare back. Lock eyes. Lick teeth. Roar. (Gulp.)

This place was already one of the price friendliest animal attractions out there. So—with all these exciting new add-ons—are we ready to take a walk on the outdoor wild side?

Oh yeah! ♦

THE BECK MUSEUMS OF BRANSON PRESENT THE WORLD'S LARGEST TOY MUSEUM PLUS:

If you haven't been there lately, then you haven't been there. Giant new add-ons to this mega attraction have been rolling out over the last few months faster than a 1925 Lionel freight train!

Let's get one thing straight—yes it truly is the World's Largest Toy Museum, (over 1 million toys), but don't get stuck on that word "museum". This isn't just some relic show. For most folks, a trip here turns into one of the funnest experiences ever—whether the folks be Moms and Dads with the kids in tow, the grandfolks—or even (no kidding) newlyweds! Yes, you heard right—newlyweds! Seems toys spark memories that the newbies begin to vocalize—pretty much a giant leap in their new life of getting to know each other!

Fun Stuff Galore!

The minute you step inside this monster attraction comprised of six different inside pavilions, you'll feel more like you've walked into a lively theme park than some still-life-of-a museum!

EXPLORERS: Surrounded on all sides as they explore a wonderland of toys, former kids Mark and Crystal Masters from Sonoma, California appear mesmerized as they gaze at a giant toy version of the Santa Maria. (That was one of those three ships famous explorer Captain Columbus commanded back when he discovered us.)

Among all the pleasant background noises of toys and games both mechanical and electronic, you are likely to hear shrieks of delight, giggling kiddos—and the unmistakable soundtrack of voices telling the stories this place so magically inspires!

The Inside Scoop

Let's take a look around. To orient ourselves in this huge toyland, know that there are six distinct areas located in three adjoined buildings on three levels, each with amazing gift shops that you're going to love. (A set of chattering teeth, anyone? How about some Pez? Hot Wheels? Yo-yos? Tinker Toys? Retro Barbies? Lincoln Logs? Some magic tricks the store hosts will be glad to demonstrate for you? Perhaps a set of ball and jacks, or a Daisy BB gun?

Says longtime museum host Ron Howard, (not the Opie guy), "We've got lots of nostalgia items you won't find anywhere else. Some don't have buttons or screens or batteries," he laughs,—"so kids today sometimes don't know what to do with them!"

Just Go!

Just so you know, this is not just old stuff from flea markets or garage sales. These are enormous collections gathered from all over. We'll explain that later. First, a little name-dropping here to help paint a picture of what you can expect to see—a giant Star Wars Collection, Star Trek, Marvel, Barbie, TV Westerns from the 1950s, GI-Joes wearing just about every uniform in history, the most spectacular model train set up ever, courtesy of The Roark Valley Modular Railroad Club, model circuses (created by The Circus Model Builders Association), sports memorabilia, Native American artifacts, bicycles, cap guns, car toys, (probably more than you'll see in your lifetime,) planes toys, pedal toys, models, farm toys, firemen toys, police toys, Care

RETRO FUN!

Neil and Karen Bruner of Little Rock, Arkansas help the kiddos discover the fascinating world of tinker toys and legos at one of the museum's interactive play areas. 8 year-old Gavin seems to be building upwards while 4 yr. old Gabby works on a new set of wheels.

My Voice

it was, but they knew every word to the songs we sang. They were connected, through music, to their memories and to one another.

Weeks later, while singing on a cruise ship, I watched an audience of strangers become a family through their love for music. After seven days of performances, they left with a shared joy and connection that only live music can inspire. Together, they felt the gamut of emotions. They experienced highs and lows of every song... the goosebumps inspired by unexpected notes...the magic of a perfectly written lyric. As we left the ship, there was a shared understanding that we had been gifted the most special of memories—the beauty of a shared song.

You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

— Isaiah 55:12

So often, in the heights of our show season, I have nights when I am not always enthusiastic to perform. Life can make emotions high, sickness can plague the voice and sometimes I'm just plain tired. This off-season has reminded me that even on those nights, I have a job to do. I have a responsibility to use the tools God gave me to create smiles, joy, laughter and memories. I have the ability to change someone's day, and in doing so, I can change my own. This off-season has reminded me that I am blessed beyond measure to carry the job title of entertainer.

Hats off to you January and February! You did your job, and now it is time for me to do mine! The break was much needed, but the stage lights are calling. There is much joy to be spread. ♦
