CONFESSIONS: SATURDAY EVENING: 5PM - 5:40PM

 We pray for Pat Bateson who died recently all whose anniversaries occur around this time: Margaret Henry, Paul Carron, Simone Dawkins, Idalina Silva and Kathleen Hone, Francis Fletcher, Manuel Luiz, Selwon Scott, Richard Machin-Perez, Peter Elabor, Bridget Nolan, Harold D’Cruz, Josephine Nipah, Barbara Scawthorne and Manuel Dos Santos. May their souls - and the souls of all the faithful departed - through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

It has been great to watch Pope Leo’s visit to Spain in recent days and see the incredible number of people come out into the streets to greet him and pray with him. The highlight was his celebrating Mass for 1.2 million people in Madrid after which he processed through the streets with the Eucharist on the feast of Corpus Christi. In his words to the people he spoke of the great devotion of the Eucharistic Procession and its meaning for the people of Spain who carry it out with such beauty and reverence. Next June will be the 140th anniversary of the consecration of our parish Church and a great time to resurrect our own Corpus Christi procession. I look forward to working towards it as a goal so that we too can witness to the God who wants to be involved in our lives. These were Pope Leo’s inspiring words: “Just as Christ gives himself as food in the Eucharistic celebration, the procession shows that he is not confined to the church, but comes out to meet us. Jesus travels the streets, crosses the squares and visits our neighbourhoods, dwelling in the settings of our daily lives. He is a God who is close to us, who walks with his people, the Lord of history. He is comfort to the weak, light for families, hope for the sick and peace for those who suffer. The Christ who processes through the streets in the monstrance is the same one who identifies with the poor, the downtrodden, those who are alone and forsaken. It is no coincidence that the Church here in Spain has long combined the Solemnity of Corpus Christi with the Day for Charity. It is not merely a matter of bringing out the monstrance, but of allowing ourselves to be brought out of our selfishness and indifference, of a comfortable, private faith, so as to respond to his invitation to conversion, to change our perspective, and to welcome his presence which transforms us and makes us builders of a new world.” Amen!

PARISH NEWS

THANK YOU! I am so grateful to everyone who contributed towards our Summer Fair - whether you bought a raffle ticket, donated an item, helped to run a stall or have an estate agent's board in your front garden, your contribution is very much appreciated. I am particularly grateful to Andres for coordinating the fair along with Yogi which involved a great amount of work. We made a whopping £9850. We will be selling plants / remaining items after Mass. Let's make it £10,000! Thank you all!! :-)

Those of English, Ghanaian and all other heritages are welcome to come and enjoy the game. Arrivals from 7:30pm. If you're able to help on the night please do let us know at the parish office. More information next week.

NEW RESPONSIBILITIES: Archbishop John has appointed me as Vocations Director for the Archdiocese from 1st September this year. The role of Vocations Director is to assist those discerning a vocation to the sacramental priesthood, support those in seminary formation and promote vocations. We currently have ten candidates for the Archdiocese training in London, Rome and Valladolid. I am humbled to be entrusted with this responsibility and ask for your prayers. The role is a full-time job in many other dioceses but - due to a lack of priests - it cannot be here. In anticipation of taking on the role I am excited by the challenge and particularly grateful to Fr Godfrey for his willingness to support.

REGISTER AS A PARISHIONER: We have a new parishioner registration form that helps us stay in touch, provide pastoral care, and understand the gifts within our community; it takes 5 mins to complete. Thank you for helping us grow together as a parish. Please fill it out via this link or scan the QR code on the right. Paper copies are available in the porch.

SYCAMORE CONCLUDED: Our Thursday evening course has now ended. Thanks to all who helped!
