CONFESSIONS: SATURDAYS: 5-6PM [IN CHURCH HALL]

PRIVATE PRAYER: WEDS: 12-2PM, SAT: 4-6PM

We pray for all who have died recently. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. We pray for James Bascoe-Smith and Francoise Atta who are very unwell at this time. During this season when we remember Jesus giving us eternal life we remember all who work to bring the news of Jesus Christ to those who are yet to hear - or who are prevented from hearing - the message of Christ. We pray for our Missionaries working to bring the Gospel message to different parts of the earth and for those working to assist them. We pray for all of those within our parish community who are discerning their own step towards conversion and full communion with the Catholic Church in our parish. May God grant them the courage to take this step and join our RCIA programme in order to become members of our family!

PARISH NEWS

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL OF YOU! I am overjoyed to have celebrated our first Easter together! Although we were somewhat limited in what we could do liturgically - and how many of us could gather - it has been wonderful to experience your faith. Thank you to all who have contributed to our liturgies over the Triduum: to our stewards, readers, sacristans, musicians and flower arranger. I am so very grateful for all your hard work. Our Church has been made to look beautiful and may our experience of Jesus' love spill over into our families and those whom we meet in Eastertide and beyond! I wish all of your families a very happy celebration of the Octave and the holiday period!

EASTER WEEK MASSES: Our Easter Weekday Octave Masses will be at the later time of 11am.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION PROGRAMME - SUMMER 2021: Please be assured that we have received your online applications but are yet to communicate with you. I will be in touch after the Easter holidays with details about how we will carry out the formation programme and conclude it this summer.
