We pray especially for Giuseppe Portelli, Winston Delgado, Manuel Dos Santos, Manuel Luis and Esperance Dawa Atalia who died recently. We pray for Cecilia Kennedy, Francesca Carmenzula, Richard Honan, Cyril (Peter) Nicholas, Sonny Drinknall and all whose anniversaries occur at this time. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. We pray for all who have lost their jobs or are searching for employment and the current time and finding it difficult to find work. May the Lord grant them perseverance in coming to terms with loss of earnings and success in finding work. We pray that as the country returns to work new opportunities will be created and economic recovery be swift.

The Newsletter arriving early this week gives us a chance to reflect upon the forthcoming feast of St Benedict this Saturday (we will celebrate him at the 9am Mass). St Benedict was named Patron of Europe by Pope Paul VI in 1964; a significant act by a Pope who was invoked to guide the Church in a period of great upheaval. Benedict of Nursia (modern day Norcia); a small town in Umbria, Italy, lived as a hermit and was himself asked to guide monastic communities (eventually establishing twelve of them) in turbulent times before settling in Monte Cassino; a beautiful monastery destroyed by bombing in the Second World War. Benedict eventually distilled his wisdom and experience into a piece of writing seen as possibly the most significant in the history of civilisation; the Rule of St Benedict. The overwhelming majority of monastic communities in the Middle Ages (and today) lived (and live) according to it and it’s helpful for us to take one word from it for our reflection; the first one of his Rule, ... “Listen”. We know in whichever job or role we have been called by God to carry out or fulfil we only succeed when we do this. Teachers won’t understand how to help a struggling child unless they understand the problems they face (they need to listen to them) and doctors can’t treat their patients without understanding how they feel (they need to listen to them). Most importantly, we will never carry out our mission until we find the time to let God teach and heal us in prayer; time we spend in silence so we can listen to Him. FM
