New rules and regulations pertaining to window coverings.

Window covering should either be while, off-white, beige or light grey. Window covering in other colours should be lined in white, off-white, beige or light grey to protect the uniformity of the building from the outside.

Approved unanimously by the Board of Directors on September 17th, 2025.