Echoes of Alexandria Concerto for Five Organs

It isn't every day that an artist collective adds a really major work to the catalogue. We are so very proud to be able to offer Gustavo Delgado Parra's brilliant Echoes of Alexandria. A concerto for FIVE organs. In six movements and running about 30", this wonderful piece takes the ancient city of Alexandria, Ctesibius and the hydraulus, the birds of Aristander, and even the Great Lighthouse all into account. We have posted a video of the premiere on our Youtube page, do have a listen!

BLOG

We've got two new blog articles added to the library!

Don't miss the article by Frederick Frahm, which delves into his latest triptych of 'still life' artworks: Green Chair at a Train Station, Dollar for a Coffee Shop, and Newspaper in the Dooryard. It's not just a series of beautiful images, but rather a profound exploration of nostalgia in art.

Frahm recently anthologized his 12 Flower Pieces, which were created between 2020 and 2024, into a single collection and delves into the meaning behind these expressive compositions. These solo pieces view flowers not merely as ornamental, but rather as "a miraculous testament to the creator's genius in capturing such beauty and perfection in a compact form." As noted by the composer, "flowers are serious things".
