The overall activity level of this tour is a level 2. This means you like a balanced approach to travel. Walking two to three miles over the course of a day is no problem for you. You can handle a variety of terrains, from cobblestone streets to moderate hills with relative ease and without assistance. You can climb two flights of stairs with ease. Expect some full days balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. You can handle altitudes up to 6,000 feet. While this level is appropriate for travelers that require mobility assistance devices, there could be times when you may have to sit out on some of the included activities.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

Linderhof Palace does not have an elevator in the palace, however, a mobile stair climbing aid is available.

There is minimal walking at Nordkette Alpine experience, but you should feel comfortable navigating slight inclines and altitudes in winter conditions.

Traveling to Seefeld by train, you must be able to step on and off the train independently.

Sightseeing often takes place outdoors in winter conditions, which may include cold temperatures, rain, snow, or icy walks.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Nordkette Alpine Experience (Choice on Tour): Conditions at Seegrube are significantly colder than in the city, with possible snow, ice, and wind. Warm layers, a winter coat, gloves, and sturdy, non-slip footwear are essential.

You will be traveling during the heart of a European winter. Expect cold temperatures, likely between 23°F to 41°F, with potential for rain, snow, and icy conditions. Proper footwear and layered clothing are essential for your comfort and safety. Market visits are primarily outdoor experiences and subject to winter weather conditions. Alpine routes may be affected by snow or ice.

Nordkette Alpine Experience (Choice on Tour) is an ascend from Innsbruck to nearly 6300 feet/1920 meters above sea level for Alpine views. The experience takes approximately 2 to 3 hours.

Linderhof Palace is located at an altitude of approximately 3280 feet/1000 meters above sea level.

The day you visit Salzburg will be one of the longest days of this tour as it takes about 3 hours each way to get there from Innsbruck.

Salzburg Old Town does not allow coaches to access the center of town, so travelers should anticipate walking at least 0.5 miles in order to reach Old Town for the city tour and lunch.

While traveling to Linderhof Palace and Oberammergau, you may expect to spend up to 2 hours on the coach.

*Due to unforeseen schedule changes, witnessing the performance of the Glockenspiel might not be possible.
