

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION
BY THE CHILDREN OF
ADARSH GIRIJANA PRAGATI VIDYALAYA -IDS –DASAMANTAPUR

India is a secular Country with different faiths and various religions. People here celebrate different festivals throughout the year as per their own faith. Christmas is a very important festival for Christians and those who believe in Jesus Christ. It is a believe that Jesus came down to earth to serve the mankind with his love and blessings. Every year, the children of ADARSHA GIRIJANA PRAGATI VIDYALAYA celebrate Christmas festival with great joy and pleasure.

On 24th December 2018 night, all children and staff/board members/well wishers of IDS celebrated Christmas day in AGPV premises. It was a great opportunity for IDS board members to get involved in this program as they celebrated the Christmas with the children. On 24th evening children and staff decorated AGPV with colorful light, flower, beautiful toy and balloon and also planted Christmas tree in corner of the room.

Mr.Pradip Khosla (The Pastor of local church) DASAMATAPUR, addressed the gathering citing the various lines from BIBLE and spoke in detail about the importance of the day . At beginning of the festival all children and staff lighted the candle and offered prayer to Lord Jesus. After candle lighting, all children and staff recited few quoting from bible as per advice of Pastor. Then Christmas cake was distributed among the children.

For this special day, new cloth and other materials (dress, blanket, mat with bed sheet, mattress, bag, shoe, cosmetic materials for girls) for all children were distributed by the governing board members of IDS. All children were very happy to receive all these materials. Then a special dinner party was arranged on the occasion with nice dishes . After dinner, a cultural programme was organized with dance and musical performance. All children enjoyed this special day with great joy and pleasure. All staff of IDS also received gift (Dress materials) during the occasion for their hard work, contribution and commitment to the children.

On 26th Dec'2018, a picnic/outing was organized for all children of AGPV and all children were served very good dishes with both veg & Non-veg items. All children enjoyed the picnic and food as well.

XXXXXXX

Program Highlights

Mr.Pradip Khosla – The Pastor of local church with the children during Christmas Celebration

Mr.Pradip Khosla – The Pastor is helping children in cutting Christmas Cake.

Board Members/Well wishers of IDS during Christmas Celebration

All IDS Staff received gift during Christmas Celebration

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all the supporters at Shared Blessings