Children Safe Uganda

Founded in 1968 as the Bweya Children's Home, the mission of CSU is Christian Evangelism and Social Work. Director Moses Ssebaggala writes "Our vision is to see that the most vulnerable people are transformed economically, socially, physically, intellectually and spiritually."

CSU also run a daycare for 50 disadvantaged preschool children as well as an elementary school.

A recent project that teaches self help, the Community Development Project concentrates on strengthening families in an extremely poverty stricken area where the illiteracy rate is 86%. Sponsoring a child through this program will not only help the child, but will improve life for the whole family. Education, good hygiene and nutrition, health maintenance and business skills are just some of the areas this ambitious program seeks to cover.

Director Moses Ssebaggala with wife, Naomi and their 4 daughters.
