[District 170][West Palm Beach, FL] [February 2021] Our Three Legacies: Steps, Traditions and Concepts. The threefold guides of Al-Anon point the way to a normal, useful life for the individual. They also are a framework within which the groups can carry on their affairs in harmony.] They also are a framework within which the groups

STEP 2: RECOVERY

Step 2: Came to believe a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity. Share: had very little problem with the "Came to believe" part of the step. I am a Christian and a follower of Jesus. However, I did not always behave as I was in relationship with God at the center. So, I thought once I read all of the Al-Anon literature and went to meetings, God would snap His/Her fingers and I would be restored to sanity! ha ha...Then reality set in and being restored to sanity means that I had to take a look at my life. I had to feel the unresolved anger, sadness, hurt, pain, revenge that I've been so scared to admit. Being restored to sanity now is inviting God into every area of my life, no matter how small I may think it is and accepting God's guidance, even if I don't understand. Being returned to sanity is a life long process and did not happen as I wanted. I see my progress when I use the tools of the program, contact my sponsor, attend meetings and open my mind to the strength and hope of others. Being restored to sanity has been hard but my life is better for it.

TRADITION 2: UNITY

Tradition 2: For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority - a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern. Share: Before Al-Anon I never felt that I belonged to any group. It was as if I was always just visiting. To compensate for my low self-esteem, I usually overcompensated. I volunteered for everything and over did! I felt like I had to justify my membership. so I could feel a part of the team. Now, meetings don't belong to anyone except those that show up and participate. No one is in charge, our leaders are but trusted servants.

CONCEPT 3: SERVICE

Tradition 3: The relatives of alcoholics, when gathered together for mutual aid, may call themselves an Al-Anon Family Group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation. The only requirement for membership is that there is a problem of alcoholism in a relative or friend. Share: I believe the founders of AA and Al-Anon learned through trial and error regarding membership in the programs and as a result whenever someone reaches out for help, let the hand of each be there. That hand was there for me and I want to be the hand for others. I am thankful the founders developed this special tradition.

WHAT KEEPS ME COMING BACK?

I completely believe in Step 2. When I first came to meetings and I got some literature, I latched onto it as the most hopeful concept.

It's Superbowl Sunday and all talk seems to be about football. I have little interest in it, and virtually no understanding of it, although I have picked up snippets here and there.

But hearing chatter about it has been unavoidable. And all talk was about which quarterback would win. It sounded like the game of Football, or a quarterback, represented a Higher Power to some fans of the game.

As for me, until I asked the question, I had no idea who was playing.

Now I know they are squads of 22 plus players. They are Teams. A quarterback is one player, with 21 plus teammates.

I do have a point, and this is it: It occurs to me that I view Al-Anon as my team. I used to be a quarterback. I had to win the game. I was responsible for making sure everything was right for everybody, and it would be because of my errors if things went wrong. And I even fixed the financial and living situations of my qualifier. Insanity.

But here I am today. A grateful member of Al-anon, part of a squad of teammates I can turn to at any time when I drop the ball. These meetings are like a huddle. But there is no coach instructing me what to do. My Ala-pals are sharing ideas and experiences which contribute to helping me to write my own play book.

And I have a game plan – just for today! My S.O. will watch the game and I will zoom in on a lecture. My S.O. will pig out on Football Stadium Fare, and I will do service by preparing it. And I will partake of it myself, and, just for today, I will not beat myself up for eating the wrong thing. Game day is still game day.

I am a truly grateful member of Al-Anon. I am truly grateful to you all. You are all coaches, and I guess quarterbacks to me.

However, should we get to meet in person one day, I promise not to throw buckets of ice all over you.

Thanks for letting me share.
