

Recording Artist/Songwriter, Travis Smith has established himself as a regular on the Texas Regional Radio Chart and the Texas Music Chart. Since 2020, there have only been a few weeks that the music charts did not include at least 1 song that he has written.

“Burning Daylight” , “Up To Kansas City”, “How Can I Miss Her?”, and most recently, “Too Close To Home” featuring Cindy Jo Sanders

Travis’ writing style has a subtleness that people really enjoy.....a little less of the “in your face” ,...more of a “let’s take this trip together” kinda vibe. Songs that say something, without being blatantly obvious.

Live shows are ALWAYS FUN, whether it is an acoustic show or with his full band called 0:DARK:30 , (several band members, including Travis are military vets). “If we are having fun, the audience will too.”

In addition to the original songs that you have heard on the radio, you’ll hear some Merle, Hank, Alan and George,...some Tom Petty and Eagles....and of course some Great Texas/Red Dirt songs.

After September 11, 2001 Travis had to put his music career on hold and spent the next 14 years serving in the U.S. Army. “SGM” Travis Smith now fully immersed in the Texas Music Scene ..Right Where He Belongs!
