COMING SOON

A New Year... Here We GO!

By Joanne Hennessy Thompson

Well, the year 2025 certainly was a rollercoaster of good, bad, and bizarro. For the most part we made it through. Small businesses have come and gone, reflecting the nature of growth and change that marks Brunswick County. For better or worse, it remains to be seen. Hopes are high for the year 2026 to be brighter, peaceful, and sane.

Here's a reminder. Voting begins for the 2026 BRUNSWICK MARKETPLACE'S People's Choice Awards. Get busy and vote for your favorite in each category. Don't whine if your favorite doesn't win and you didn't vote. Businesses who want to win are urging customers to vote because they care and want to win. So, make this your first act to support our small businesses in 2026. Get busy!

Southport's new Cape Side Brewing on North Howe St. is working feverishly to get open and brewing. And, a new wine shop, Water Tower Wine, has sprung up in the building where formerly the Grape & Ale (the original on Oak Island is still open and going strong!) and The Wine Rack operated.

Frying Pan, Flava's and Provisions are closed for the season. They will open in spring. In winter, you can still count on Oliver's for a beautiful waterfront view, well-made cocktails and good food.

Looking for something to do and broaden your creative world? Scott at Ports of Call is offering Mixology Lab classes in creative cocktail creation. Classes are limited so call or stop in to reserve your spot.

Fixins will host monthly Food & Wine pairing dinners again. January is themed "Sea meets the Farm." Menus and dates will be published in January.

Rick Dobrowski
Chef/Owner, Fixins

Southport Coffee Co. has opened another new location 4309 Business 17 in Bolivia. This makes a total of three locations. The other two are 130E Moore St. and 5503 Rob Gandy Blvd. in Southport.

The Pearl in Southport closed its doors but is moving its business to within Beach and Barn Designs on Long Beach Rd. At that location a new business, Southport Spices, is working toward opening with plenty of things to spice things up in the new year.

Don't forget when the weather turns chilly to visit Streat Side Café off of N. Howe St. where the "Soup Magician" chef Rhonda serves up a variety of soups that warm your belly, heart, and soul. Oh, there are other great choices on the menu, but we hear that customers drop by early or order the soup in advance so as not to miss out.

Speaking of spicing things up, The Salty Olive is certainly a place anyone who loves to entertain and enjoys great balsamic vinegars and finest olive oils. Owners Lisa and Mike are welcoming and knowledgeable, always offering tastings, recipes and suggestions. You can find a perfect hostess gift here. Better yet, treat yourself to something new to taste. After all, you deserve it.

Very popular Southport Cookies has relocated to 112 N Howe St., to a much more visible and more easily accessed spot. The plan is to open mid-January with a great selection of vegan and gluten-free cookies and baked specialties.

As far as chain stores go; Burrito Shak, on Southport Supply Rd., opened. Dunkin' (Donuts), a free-standing site near Food Lion on Long Beach Rd. is expected. BSL is getting a Marathon gas station. Rumor has it that work is well underway on Cape Fear Seafood near the River Mist neighborhood off Hwy. 211.

Also, on the way to Oak Island long-time high-end consignment shop Klassy Konsignment has undergone a remodel/refresh and is open for business.

Contrary to the rumor Wildlife Grill, a favorite of locals and fishermen, will stay open throughout the winter. So, stop in for some "ole tyme cookin'."

Are you looking for general and custom auto repair from professionals who care? Wilson Speed at 4366 Fish Factory Rd. offers experienced top-notch car care and sincere customer service. Stop in and talk to the professionals.

Big changes on Oak Island include an expansion of Salt64. Something unique is on its way with a complete remodel and revamp to the building that was the old Shuckers for many years. Word has it that Swain's has some changes coming along too.

Bored with winter? If you want to plan an adult leisurely vacation, why not consult with Brunswick County local Katie Bates, Viking travel advisor. Check out her ad in this issue, page 11.

Don't forget to take time to care for yourself in 2026. Be kind to yourself and care for your body and soul in a world that is hard on us all. We have access to many services to help keep your body well in the new year. Here are just a few for you to check out and try:

- Premier Fitness Studio on Long Beach Rd. has classes from bungee to yoga, salt float tank sessions, body contouring and sculpture, Parkinson training, mind and spine chiropractic, to name a few of the choices.
- Spa Bella in Southport offers one-on-one spa services in a calm peaceful setting.
- Las Olas located near Joseph's has a complete menu of rejuvenation and medical grade services.
- For strength and mobility, The Stretch and Mobility Coach, Brett, can be found at 5521 Rob Gandy Blvd. in Southport 614-560-3015.
- The Southport Beauty Bar has a full-service menu from waxing to massage to infrared Sauna.

Lastly, We wish everyone a wonderful 2026! All our very best to All.

We're growing—and we need caring, energetic volunteers to help support our twice-weekly Knockin' Out Parkinson's exercise classes. These classes are packed with encouragement, connection, and meaningful moments... plus a few good laughs along the way.

Classes meet Mondays & Fridays from 10:30-11:15AM, and volunteers are needed from 10:15-11:30AM.

Volunteers help with simple but important tasks—greeting participants, helping with set up, offering support during exercises, and helping create a welcoming, upbeat environment. Think of it as being part cheerleader, part sidekick, and part “make-everything-run-smoothly” hero.

If you have a compassionate heart, a desire to help others maintain strength and independence, and a willingness to learn more about Parkinson's Disease and how we're working to slow its progression, we'd love to talk with you.

Because of the nature of this role, volunteers must be steady on their feet and comfortable assisting participants with balance, standing, walking, and getting safely in and out of chairs. Super Hero Capes are optional, but stability is required.

Ready to join the “Cool Kids” team? Send us a message telling us a little about yourself and why you want to volunteer: BrunsCoWellnessNC@gmail.com

These events offer additional opportunities to connect, learn, and stay engaged during the winter season.

The Brunswick County Library's Winter Reading Program is a great way to stay active, curious, and connected while enjoying the many resources the library has to offer.

A Reminder About Freezing Temps!

It's winter and even though we have generally mild winters in Brunswick County, temperatures can suddenly drop. Brunswick County Sheriff Chism wants to remind everyone a few extra precautions can keep people, especially our seniors, and also our pets, safe:

People: Dress in layers, limit time outdoors, and bring blankets or space heaters (used safely) for extra warmth.

- Pets: Bring pets inside! If it's too cold for you, it's too cold for them. Make sure outdoor animals have dry, insulated shelter and unfrozen water.

- Seniors: Check on elderly neighbors or family members to ensure they have heat, blankets, and everything they need for the night.

Stay warm and stay safe, Brunswick County!

At Suds of Love, this is what hope looks like.

In every load of laundry, every gifted washer and dryer, and every moment spent serving our neighbors, we're reminded why this work matters so deeply.

These photos tell our story:

Children who deserve to feel confident, clean, and cared for.

Families and unsheltered neighbors who rely on us for dignity and stability.

Schools receiving washer/dryer sets so students never have to worry about being embarrassed or missing class because of unwashed clothes.

Our team—hands-on, committed, and showing up with compassion every single day.

This is who we are.

This is why we serve.

This is Suds of Love.

We believe that clean clothes can change a day—and sometimes a life.

We are grateful to every person who supports this mission and helps us bring dignity, comfort, and kindness to those in need.

K9 Team Tracks and Apprehends Domestic Violence Suspect

On November 8th, Deputy J. Smith and his K9 partner, Oti, responded to a domestic violence incident on Bistrow Road. After learning the suspect had fled the scene and had active warrants, Deputy Smith deployed K9 Oti to track him. Oti quickly followed the scent through a wooded area and successfully located the suspect, who was taken into custody without further incident.

Thanks to the teamwork, skill, and dedication of Deputy Smith and K9 Oti, a dangerous individual was safely apprehended and a victim, who is six months pregnant, was protected.

Great work by Deputy Smith, K9 Oti, and all deputies involved!

Protect Battery Island — Support the Living Shoreline Project

The Audubon North Carolina is now accepting donations to help build a pilot "living shoreline" on the southwest side of Battery Island — a critical sanctuary for nesting waterbirds in the lower Cape Fear River.

— is putting the island's trees and bird habitat at risk.

- The living-shoreline project will install a 70-foot test reef to buffer waves, stabilize sediment, and help protect the island's shoreline for future generations.

Why this matters:

- Battery Island hosts as many as 10,000 nesting pairs of White Ibis each year, among the largest wading-bird colonies in North Carolina.
- Shoreline erosion — driven by rising tides, storms, and boat wakes

How you can help:

Donate to support the project and ensure Battery Island remains a safe, thriving home for thousands of nesting birds.

Read more — and get details on how to donate — via Audubon's blog: <https://buff.ly/2yl1QnX>

You guys are the best!", "I wasn't a Springsteen fan, until now!... this band and this show was incredible!", "Best band or tribute we've ever had here, by far!", and many more.

Southport Specialty License Plate Pre-Orders Still Open

Pre-orders are still underway for the official Southport, North Carolina Specialty License Plate, and local residents are encouraged to take part in bringing this hometown design to the road.

The specialty plate features iconic Southport imagery, including the town's recognizable water tower and festive banner elements inspired by the annual North Carolina Fourth of July Festival, making it a colorful and meaningful way to show Southport pride year-round.

Standard plates are available for $30, while customized plates are offered for $60. Personalized plates are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Plates are available for any North Carolina-registered, non-commercial vehicle, including passenger vehicles and golf carts.

To move forward with production, 500 pre-orders are required. Organizers report the effort is currently 33 percent of the way toward that goal, and community support will be key to bringing the plate to life.

Residents may place a pre-order in person at Southport City Hall, located at 1029 North Howe Street. City Hall is open Monday through Friday from 8:30am to 4:30pm. Pre-order forms must be completed and payment made in person, or the form may be downloaded online at <https://buff.ly/hLSmpkO> and mailed to City Hall at the same address.

Those with questions or seeking additional information may contact ChyAnn Ketchum at cketchum@cityofsouthport.com.

With enough community participation, the Southport specialty license plate will soon offer residents a new way to celebrate and share their love for this coastal town wherever the road leads.

A New Year's Message

As we turn the page on another year, January offers us a natural moment to pause, reflect, and look ahead with purpose.

The past year reminded us, once again, that public service is not just about responding to calls or enforcing laws; it's about people. It's about showing up during moments of uncertainty, celebrating milestones together, and building trust that lasts beyond any single interaction. Throughout the year, our deputies and staff worked tirelessly to serve this community with professionalism, compassion, and integrity. I am incredibly proud of their dedication and grateful for the steady support of the citizens we serve.

We faced challenges, as every year brings its own. But we also saw progress in community partnerships, proactive initiatives, and everyday moments that don't always make headlines but matter deeply. From school visits and neighborhood outreach to major investigations and quiet acts of service, our team demonstrated what it means to lead with commitment and care.

Looking ahead to 2026, I feel optimistic and energized. The work before us is important, and we are ready for it. We will continue focusing on transparency, community engagement, and innovative approaches to public safety. Our goal remains simple but powerful: to ensure Brunswick County is a place where families feel safe, supported, and heard.

The strength of this office does not come from a badge alone – it comes from collaboration. Law enforcement, local leaders, businesses, schools, faith groups, and residents all play a role in shaping the future of our community. When we work together, we are stronger.

As the new year begins, I want to thank our residents for your trust and partnership, and my staff for their unwavering service. It is an honor to serve as your Sheriff, and I look forward to continuing this work together in the year ahead.

Here's to a safe, hopeful, and connected year ahead.

Spa Bella Helping Relax and Reset

Founded by licensed esthetician Jamie Sullivan, Spa Bella has become a trusted local space for relaxation, rejuvenation, and results-driven skincare. Jamie's philosophy is simple: when you care for your skin, you're really caring for yourself. Combining advanced treatments with a calm, welcoming environment, Spa Bella helps clients feel confident in their skin—inside and out.

The holiday season brings joy, but it can also bodies feeling overstimulated with skin showing signs of stress. Elevated cortisol levels, late nights, and indulgent treats can trigger inflammation, breakouts, and dullness.

The good news? A little intentional care can help skin bounce back.

Simple home rituals can make a big difference. Choosing foods rich in antioxidants, such as berries, leafy greens, and dark chocolate, helps fight off free radicals that contribute to premature aging. Chamomile or green tea supports relaxation while offering skin-loving benefits. Aromatherapy—scents like lavender, eucalyptus, or bergamot can calm the nervous system and set the tone for rest.

Creating your own mini spa night can be a lovely way to slow down and recharge.

For those ready to take their self-care to the next level, professional treatments offer deeper rejuvenation and more targeted results. Spa Bella, exists to guide you every step of the way—from a first-time facial that helps you learn about your skin, to advanced services designed to refine, renew, and restore.

Spa Bella offerings include gentle exfoliating treatments like derma-planing and microdermabrasion, chemical peels for cellular renewal and brightness, and Procell Micro-channeling—a next-generation, minimally invasive treatment that tightens, smooths, and boosts collagen production with minimal downtime (about 90 minutes compared to several days for microneedling).

The post-holiday season is the perfect time to invest in your skin and yourself. Whether at home or in the spa, small moments of care can make a big impact on how you look and feel.

When you care for your skin, you are really caring for you.

Small Changes, Big Wins: Five Flavor Swaps for a Healthier Year

January always brings a burst of inspiration. We're ready for fresh starts, healthier routines, and meals that make us feel good. But here's the truth most of us discover by February: big, sweeping food changes rarely stick. What does work? Small, satisfying upgrades—ones that add flavor, not frustration.

Here are five simple swaps that can make a meaningful difference in how you cook, eat, and enjoy food this year.

1. Swap Bottled Dressings for a Simple Vinaigrette

Most store-bought dressings are loaded with added sugars, preservatives, and inexpensive oils. A homemade vinaigrette takes one minute, tastes brighter, and lets you control what goes into it.

Try this: whisk together a high-quality extra virgin olive oil and a favorite balsamic, add a pinch of salt, and a dab of prepared mustard. That's it. Make a small jar and keep it in the fridge for the week.

2. Swap Heavy Sauces for Herb-Infused Oils

Creamy or sugary sauces can weigh down meals. Flavored olive oils—like garlic, basil, or lemon—add a burst of fresh flavor without added heaviness.

How to use it: drizzle garlic olive oil over roasted veggies, basil oil over pasta, or lemon oil on fish or chicken right before serving. It's the easiest upgrade you'll ever make.

3. Swap Sugar-Packed Glazes for Balsamic Reductions

A high-quality balsamic reduction delivers that same glossy, delicious finish without loading your plate with refined sugars.

Try this: Gently heat a dark balsamic on the stovetop until syrupy or use Salty Olive's Aged Balsamic which is already thick. Drizzle it over vegetables, chicken, fruit, or even yogurt for a sweet-tart finish.

4. Swap Bland Veggies for Roasted, Seasoned, and Drizzled Ones

Many people think they don't like vegetables—but what they really don't like is boiled vegetables. Roasting brings out natural sweetness and pairing them with a finishing drizzle takes them from "meh" to irresistible.

Warm up winter produce: roast carrots with rosemary oil, Brussels sprouts with garlic oil, or sweet potatoes with a dab of cranberry pear balsamic. You'll be surprised how often vegetables become the star of the plate.

5. Swap Restriction for Flavor

This might be the most important change of all. Healthy eating doesn't have to feel like a chore. Instead of taking things away, try adding flavor. When food tastes good, you naturally eat more of the nourishing things—colorful vegetables, lean proteins, whole grains—without feeling deprived.

A simple philosophy: Add plants. Add color. Add flavor. Add joy.

Start Small, Savor Big Wins

Healthy eating isn't about perfection. It's about patterns—and patterns are shaped by tiny daily habits. A drizzle here, a better oil there, a more vibrant veggie on the plate. These little choices build momentum, and by spring, they add up to a way of eating that feels effortless, joyful, and delicious.

If you're looking for more inspiration, join us at Salty Olive this winter as we explore simple, flavor-forward ways to make 2026 your most delicious year yet. Our Olive Oil and Balsamic Vinegar Bar is open daily for tasting no RSVP needed!

Oak Island Sea Turtle Protection Program: Be on the Lookout for Cold-Stunned Sea Turtles

As winter temperatures arrive, the Oak Island Sea Turtle Protection Program is asking residents and visitors to be especially alert for cold-stunned sea turtles along our beaches and waterways.

North Carolina is already seeing a significant increase in cold-stunned sea turtles. Cold-stunning occurs when water temperatures drop below 50°F (10°C), causing sea turtles to become lethargic and unable to swim properly. Because sea turtles are ectothermic, or cold-blooded, they rely on external heat sources to regulate their body temperature. When exposed to prolonged cold, they may float at the surface of the water, unable to dive, or wash ashore.

In this vulnerable state, sea turtles are at serious risk from boat strikes, predators, and rough surf. They may appear injured or even deceased, but many turtles can recover with proper care and rehabilitation.

If you see a sea turtle floating at the tide's edge or washed ashore:

- Do not place the turtle back in the water
- Do not attempt to move, bury, or handle the turtle
- Call immediately for assistance
- Oak Island Sea Turtle Protection Program Hotline: 910-945-8888

Trained responders will come to assess the turtle and, if needed, transport it to a licensed rehabilitation facility. Quick reporting can make the difference between life and death for these protected animals.

The photo above shows Angel Hair, a sea turtle previously found cold-stunned on Oak Island. Thanks to prompt reporting and proper care, turtles like Angel Hair have a chance to recover and return to the wild.

The Oak Island Sea Turtle Protection Program appreciates the community's continued support in helping protect these incredible animals.

This conservation work for protected sea turtles on Oak Island is authorized by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission (ES Permit 25ST01).

For emergencies or to report a cold-stunned sea turtle: 910-945-8888

No matter if you are new to the area or just want to know what's new to the area, the Coastal Consumer Showcase is a must attend event. We know that sometimes it is difficult to find a business that provides a product or service. You can search the Chamber's Business Directory but going to an event where you can see the product or talk with the business owner about their services, is extremely valuable. For this reason, the Chamber holds the Coastal Consumer Showcase.

The Showcase is a public event organized by the Southport-Oak Island Area Chamber of Commerce. There are many free giveaways provided by the participating businesses.

- Free Samples
- Free Giveaways
- $100 Cash Drawing
- Pick-A-Prize Auction

Admission is free. Register for the $100 Cash Drawing. Each vendor will donate prize for the Pick-A-Prize Auction. Those who register for the $100 Cash Drawing will receive one ticket for the Pick-A-Prize Auction. You may purchase as many additional auction tickets as you would like:

5 tickets for $5.00 and 20 tickets for $10.00. At 6:30pm the Chamber will draw the winners for the Pick-A-Prize Auction prizes and will notify the winners ASAP by email. Winners will pick up their prize at the business donating the item. The Chamber will notify the winner of the Cash Drawing ASAP as well.

What is a Pick-A-Prize Auction? Register and get a free ticket or purchase additional tickets. There will be a "bag" in front of each prize at every vendor booth. You determine which prize(s) you would like to a chance to win. Then you place your ticket(s) in the bag(s) of that prize(s). The winner of that prize will be selected from the corresponding "bag".

Brunswick County Real Estate: Sales up Over Recent Years During November

Brunswick County's residential real estate market saw a higher number of sales, new listings and higher prices compared to last November.

"It's normal for our market to cool off during the holiday months, and last month was no exception compared to the rest of the year. However, the number of sales we saw last month definitely stands out in comparison to previous Novembers," said Cynthia Walsh, CEO of the Brunswick County Association of REALTORS®. "Excluding the pandemic-fueled years, November 2025 stands out as the best November for sales in the past 15+ years. This demonstrates the underlying strength our market has despite national trends."

New listings increased 1.3% compared to last November, climbing from 554 to 561. The number of homes sold increased by 12.3%, from 438 to 492, while total sales volume climbed 19.7%, from $214,432,198 to $256,672,662. The average sales price increased 6.6%, from $489,571 to $521,692, and the median sales price increased 8.7%, from $372,000 to $404,500. Brunswick County's luxury market remained active, with 37 sales over $1 million, including the largest sale of 2025, which was $6.4 million in Ocean Isle Beach. This sale was also the third largest sale of all time in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) in Brunswick County.

At the time of this report there were nearly 500 pending listings, up almost 20% over November 2024. Homes spent an average of 74 days on the market and the absorption rate, which is a measure of the amount of time it would take to sell off all current inventory, is at four months.

Year-to-date through November, Brunswick County's total residential sales volume reached $2,790,823,847, up 9.5% from the same period in 2024. The number of homes sold increased 7.4%, from 5,341 to 5,737, while new listings rose 11.7%, from 7,418 to 8,283. The average sales price climbed 1.9%, from $476,988 to $486,139, and the median sales price rose 1.4% from $372,083 to $377,200.

Chamber's Afternoon Business Connections Grows Local Businesses

The Southport-Oak Island Area Chamber of Commerce invites members to take advantage of Afternoon Business Connections, a weekly networking program designed to help local businesses build relationships and generate meaningful referrals.

Afternoon Business Connections meets every Tuesday from 11:45am to 1:00pm at the Southport-Oak Island Area Chamber of Commerce, located at 4433 Long Beach Road, SE, in Southport. The program has been serving the local business community since January 2022.

This structured networking event is a benefit of Chamber membership and offers participants the opportunity to connect with fellow business owners in a focused, professional environment. The goal of Business Connections is to establish and strengthen member-to-member referrals while encouraging collaboration and long-term growth within the Southport-Oak Island business community.

Through regular attendance, participants can develop stronger relationships, increase visibility for their business, and expand their professional network. The program emphasizes consistency and engagement, with the belief that business growth happens "one lead at a time." Chamber leaders note that the more frequently members attend and actively participate, the greater the potential benefit.

Members interested in spotlighting their business may also schedule a 10-minute presentation during a meeting.

These presentations provide an opportunity to share services, expertise, and current needs with the group. Those wishing to present are encouraged to call the Chamber to reserve a presentation date.

While Business Connections meets weekly, there are two upcoming exceptions in 2025:

January 21, 2025 - No meeting

February 18, 2025 - No meeting

For Chamber members looking to strengthen connections, grow referrals, and engage with the local business community, Afternoon Business Connections offers a consistent and effective networking opportunity.

The Oak Island Recreation Center offers a free afternoon program designed to give local teens a fun, safe place to gather, stay active, and connect with friends after school.

Record-Breaking Investment in Local Education: Brunswick Electric Awards $62,000 to Teachers

Brunswick Electric Membership Corporation (BEMC) proudly celebrated a record-breaking year for its Bright Ideas education grant program, awarding $62,000 to 57 local teachers during its annual Bright Ideas Awards Luncheon on Thursday, November 6 at BEMC headquarters in Supply.

The grants will fund innovative classroom projects designed to enhance student learning in Brunswick and Columbus counties. This marks the largest total amount ever distributed through BEMC's Bright Ideas program, underscoring the cooperative's continued commitment to supporting education and inspiring creativity in local schools.

"Our teachers are doing incredible work to engage and inspire students every day," said Josh Winslow, CEO. "We're honored to help bring their Bright Ideas to life and proud to invest in the future of our communities through education."

This year's milestone coincides with the 31st anniversary of the Bright Ideas program. Since its inception in 1994, BEMC has awarded more than $800,000 in grants to local educators. The program began as a local initiative and has since expanded statewide, with North Carolina's electric cooperatives collectively funding thousands of creative classroom projects that have reached countless students across the state.

This year's celebration also marked the introduction of the Fred Mason Legacy Award, a new recognition honoring the life and influence of Fred Mason, a local teacher who touched countless lives before his passing last year. In his memory, BEMC awarded a $2,000 grant to Columbus Career and College Academy to help continue his lifelong mission of sparking curiosity and creativity in the classroom.

"Fred Mason's enthusiasm for education was contagious," said Dan Strickland, BEMC Board of Directors. "Through this award, we hope to carry forward the same spirit of innovation and care that he shared with every student."

Dosher Drug Drop Serves 231 Households

At Dosher Memorial Hospital's 29th semiannual Operation Medicine Cabinet, held on Wednesday, October 1st, 231 households discarded 7,383 expired or unwanted narcotic pills and 1,514 milliliters of narcotic liquids. Medications collected were sorted and then transported from the hospital grounds for safe incineration.

Said Dosher President and CEO Lynda Stanley. "We thank everyone who took the time to safely dispose of their medications through Operation Medicine Cabinet. We are happy to see that over the years, there are many more safe disposal locations in our immediate area compared to when Dosher started this event 17 years ago. We encourage our community to utilize those locations as well as our drug drop, since proper disposal of unwanted medications saves lives."

In addition to Dosher employees, staff and volunteers from the Brunswick County Sheriff's and Coastal Horizons were onsite to assist and to provide law enforcement. "This event requires a lot of hands-on support, and we appreciate the staff and community partners who helped ensure its success," said Stanley.

The next collection of unwanted prescription medication will be scheduled for April, 2026. Check the event calendar at Dosher.org for date and time.

Baskets of Love Brings Comfort to Nursing Home Residents This Valentine's Season

Baskets of Love is a heartfelt community initiative dedicated to bringing comfort, connection, and dignity to nursing home residents at Autumn Care of Shallotte during the Valentine's season.

The program was created to ensure residents—many of whom may feel isolated or overlooked—are reminded that they are valued, remembered, and cared for. Each basket is thoughtfully assembled with practical and comforting items chosen to provide warmth, encouragement, and small moments of joy. From cozy essentials to engaging activities, every basket serves as a tangible expression of kindness and community support.

Community members are invited to take part in Baskets of Love through donations, sponsorships, and raffle ticket purchases. Financial contributions help fund the creation of care baskets, while sponsorships assist with overall initiative costs. Raffle ticket purchases also directly support the program and help ensure that every resident receives a basket.

The physical donation period runs from January 5 through February 6. Monetary donations, sponsorships, and raffle tickets may be purchased online through Zeffy at: <https://www.zeffy.com/.../2nd-annual-love-your-local>

Those wishing to donate physical items are encouraged to consider the following suggested items:

- Chapstick and lotion
- Non-slip socks
- Puzzle books, word searches, and crosswords
- Soft blankets
- Personal care and comfort items

Physical donations may be dropped off at the following locations:

Organizers say the generosity of the community plays a vital role in making this initiative possible. Through collective support, Baskets of Love aims to brighten the Valentine's season for residents at Autumn Care and remind them that they are not alone.

Practicing Winter Weather Safety

As our region begins to experience colder temperatures, Brunswick County encourages community members to start their winter preparedness efforts. Whether you are a longtime resident or visiting the area, these tips can help keep you safe during the colder months.

Stay Informed

Register for the ReadyBrunswick emergency notification system: <https://member.everbridge.net/311440963535093/new>

Remain alert for updates from the National Weather Service Forecast Office in Wilmington, NC (NWS-Wilmington) at weather.gov/ilm. You can find the latest weather briefing at weather.gov/ilm/briefing and winter weather information at weather.gov/ilm/winter.

Have multiple ways to get weather information (local news and radio stations, NOAA weather radios, National Weather Service, emergency alert notifications, etc.)

Know how to report power outages and downed electrical lines to your electric provider. Visit their websites to learn how to report these hazards to Duke Energy Progress or Brunswick Electric Membership Corporation (BEMC).

Fire Prevention & Heat Safety Tips

Most deaths that occur during winter storms are not a direct result of the weather. Instead, people die from home fires and carbon monoxide poisoning while using alternate ways to heat or power their home. Take time to safeguard your home against these dangers and ensure the well-being of your family, pets, and property.

Check your smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors. The Brunswick County Fire Marshal's Office offers a Free Smoke Alarm Installation Program and a Free Carbon Monoxide Detector Installation Program to Brunswick County employees, residents, and property owners. Visit the Community Risk Reduction webpage to learn more.

Always plug space heaters directly into wall outlets, and make sure the cords and plugs aren't damaged or frayed. DON'T use an extension cord or power strip.

Place space heaters on a solid, flat surface and keep them at least three feet from other items. Turn them off when leaving the room or sleeping.

NEVER use a stove, oven, or charcoal grill to heat your home.

Operate generators outdoors, away from doors and windows to prevent carbon monoxide poisoning.

Keep all heat sources—including fireplaces, wood stoves, radiators, portable heaters, or candles—at least three feet away from anything that can burn.

Maintain heating equipment and chimneys by having them cleaned and inspected each year by a professional.

Protect Water Systems from Freezing Temperatures

Your pipes are at risk of freezing any time temperatures drop below 32°F or 0°C. Prevent costly pipe damage this winter by taking precautions to protect household and irrigation water systems from freezing.

Insulate pipes in unheated areas of your home and crawl spaces.

Seal any gaps and cracks in your home's exterior (such as crawl spaces) to prevent cold drafts from reaching your pipes.

Disconnect water hoses from outdoor spigots and turn off irrigation systems.

Open doors to cabinets below your sinks to help warmer air circulate around plumbing at night.

Allow a small amount of water to drip from your faucets. Running water, even at a trickle, helps prevent pipes from freezing.

Always be aware of the main water shut-off valve location for your home in case you should experience a burst pipe and need to turn off your water. Contact Brunswick County Public Utilities or your local water provider if you need assistance.

Author Talk at Barbee Library Features K. Robert Campbell

Author K. Robert Campbell will visit the G.V. Barbee, Sr. Library on Friday, January 23, at 4:00pm for a special author talk and book discussion.

Campbell earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Recreation and Park Administration from North Carolina State University and spent several years working as a park ranger in various parks across North Carolina. He later earned his law degree from Campbell University and practiced law in Southport until his retirement in 2020. His unique combination of legal expertise and outdoor experience provides a rich and authentic foundation for his writing.

Campbell is best known for his suspense novels featuring the character Cameron Scott, an outdoorsman and small-town attorney whose clients' seemingly straightforward legal matters often escalate into unexpected and dangerous situations. During the program, Campbell will discuss the first novel in the seven-book series, The Fifth Category, as well as his collection of short stories, The Twelve Tales. He will share insights into his writing process, character development, and the real-life experiences that inspire his stories.

Copies of Campbell's books will be available for purchase following the program.

Seating is limited. Registration is required and may be completed by calling the G.V. Barbee, Sr. Library at 910-278-4283, or online at <https://brunscoco.libcal.com/event/15953140>

Golden Pineapple Winter Nominations Open for Exceptional Customer Service

The Southport-Oak Island Area Chamber of Commerce is now accepting Winter Quarter nominations for its Golden Pineapple Award, a program that recognizes Chamber member businesses that consistently deliver exceptional customer service to residents and visitors throughout the community. The Golden Pineapple program is proudly sponsored by Corning Credit Union.

Outstanding customer service is the foundation of a strong and thriving small business community. By recognizing businesses that go above and beyond, the Chamber seeks to celebrate those who help create positive experiences and lasting impressions for everyone who lives in or visits the Southport-Oak Island area.

The Golden Pineapple symbol dates back to colonial America, when pineapples represented the warmest welcome a host could offer guests. In keeping with that tradition, the Chamber hopes to encourage local businesses to extend that same sense of hospitality and care, ensuring that residents and visitors alike feel welcomed and valued.

Each quarter, Chamber member businesses nominated by the general public are honored with a Golden Pineapple Certificate. Community members are encouraged to take a moment to nominate a business that has provided outstanding service, whether through friendliness, professionalism, or a genuine commitment to customer satisfaction. The only requirement is that the nominated business must be a member of the Southport-Oak Island Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Winter Quarter nomination period runs from November 1 through January 31.

For more information or assistance with nominations, contact the Southport-Oak Island Area Chamber of Commerce at 910-457-6964, or visit: <https://lp.constantcontactpages.com/sv/T20J9Fs/Golden>

Through the Golden Pineapple program, the Chamber continues to highlight the importance of exceptional service and celebrate the small businesses that help make the Southport-Oak Island area a welcoming place to live, shop, and visit.
