

2021-2022

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

This year, the Potato Leadership, Education and Advancement Foundation (Potato LEAF) will award one $10,000 scholarship to honor a graduate student (Master's degree or higher) working to conduct research and provide information that will improve the future of the U.S. potato industry. Research focus may include basic research or applied research that improves potato production efficiency, addresses pest management and disease issues, increases consumer benefits from potato consumption and or produces knowledge related to advancing the competitiveness of the U. S. potato industry. The scholarship will be awarded in August 2021 for application towards the 2021-2022 academic year.

Final scholarship selection is based on the following criteria: past academic achievement, leadership abilities, potato-related areas of graduate study, goals, benefit to the potato industry, extracurricular activities, grades, and potential commercial value. The successful scholarship recipient will be required to provide the Potato LEAF Board of Directors with a one-page report on their research project or projects in April 2022.

Completed applications must be received on or before June 18, 2021. Please upload to the Dropbox folder linked here. All components of scholarship application should be uploaded as one file to the Dropbox folder. Official transcripts can be sent to the following address:
