

Day 5: Keep Going

Devotional

Faith is not a one-time event. It is a lifelong journey of growth, and growth requires persistence.

Peter did not become the bold preacher of Acts 2 overnight. He stumbled. He doubted. He even denied Jesus. But he never quit. He kept returning to Jesus, kept believing, kept trying. And over time, his faith grew into something that shook a city.

You may feel like you are still in the early chapters of your faith story. That is okay. The point is not where you are right now. The point is that you keep going. Every time you pray, every time you choose belief over doubt, every time you take a step of obedience even when it is hard, your faith is growing.

God is not finished with you. He is not discouraged by your slow progress or your past failures. He is cheering you on, asking you to give Him what you have today and trust Him with what comes next. Keep believing. Keep moving. The best is still ahead.

Bible Verse

"In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach." - Acts 1:1

Reflection Question

Looking back over your faith journey, where have you seen God grow your faith through a season of persistence, and how does that encourage you for what you are facing today?

Quote

"The reason why Peter turns from Matthew chapter 17 to Acts chapter two is because even though in his faith he failed at times, he never quit trying. So he kept growing."

Prayer

God, thank You for not giving up on me. Help me to keep pressing forward in faith, trusting that You are growing something in me that I cannot yet fully see. Amen.
