

Day 5: He Is With You Through It All

Devotional

Here is the truth that ties everything together. God is not just with you when you pray. He is not just with you on Sunday mornings or in the hard moments when you finally cry out to Him. He is with you through it all, forever.

He walks with you. He dwells inside of you. He empowers you, teaches you, and comforts you. He provides for you always. That is not a motivational phrase. That is a promise from the God who has never broken one.

So you do not have to live a defeated life. You do not have to carry the weight of anxiety and worry as if God has stepped away. He has not. He never will.

You can face anything standing in front of you right now, because the God of the universe has His focus on your life, not just here, but in eternity. He sees the whole picture. You only see this moment. And He is asking you to trust Him with the rest.

Stand still for a moment today. Tell Him you know He is with you. And let His peace, the kind that surpasses all understanding, do exactly what He promised it would do.

Bible Verse

"And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." - Matthew 28:20

Reflection Question

If you truly believed, deep down, that God was with you every single moment of every day, what would you stop worrying about?

Quote

God is with you through it all, forever. He will always be walking with you. He will dwell inside of you. He empowers you, he teaches you, and he will comfort you. He will provide for you always. There is no need to be anxious and have worries for our life.

Prayer

God, thank You that You never leave. Help me to live today with the confidence that You are with me, and let Your peace guard my heart and mind. Amen.
