5 Day Devotional

Day 1: Eternal Life Starts Now

Devotional

We often think of eternal life as something that begins after we die. But Jesus reframes it completely. Eternal life is not just about duration. It is about relationship. Knowing God, truly and personally, is what eternal life actually is.

That means the eternal life you have been promised is not waiting for you somewhere in the future. It is available to you right now, today, in your relationship with Jesus Christ. Every moment you spend with Him, every prayer, every time you open His Word, you are already living in eternity.

This is an incredibly encouraging truth. You do not have to wait to experience what God has for you. He is present with you now, and the relationship you build with Him today is the same one you will carry into forever.

So take a breath. Slow down. The most important thing in your life is not your schedule or your to-do list. It is knowing Him. And that starts right here, right now.

Bible Verse

'And this is eternal life, that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.' - John 17:1-5

Reflection Question

If eternal life is about knowing God personally, what does your daily life say about how much you actually want to know Him?

Quote

"This is eternal life that they may know that they know you, the only true God and Jesus Christ whom you have sent."

Prayer

Lord, help me to see that knowing You is not just a future hope but a present reality. Draw me closer to You today, and let my relationship with You be the most important thing in my life.
