Day 5: Live Like Eternity Is Real

Devotional

God has placed eternity in the heart of every person. That restlessness you feel, that sense that there must be something more, is not an accident. It is a design. You were made for more than this life, and deep down, you already know it.

The question is whether that truth actually changes how you live. Eternity should not just be a belief we hold. It should be a force that shapes our decisions, our priorities, and our passions. How we raise our children, how we spend our time, what we are willing to give up, all of it carries weight that outlasts this life.

One day we will stand before God. In that moment, nothing we accumulated will matter. What will matter is whether we knew Jesus and whether we helped others know Him too.

Let that reality light a fire in you. Not out of fear, but out of love. You have been given something worth living for and worth sharing. Do not let the busyness of today crowd out the urgency of eternity.

Bible Verse

'He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end.' - Ecclesiastes 3:11

Reflection Question

If you knew you would stand before God in one year, what is one thing you would change about how you are living right now?

Quote

"Eternity should drive our life. It should push our life. There should be a passionate about it."

Prayer

Father, let the reality of eternity shape everything I do. Give me a heart that is passionate about knowing You and helping others find You, starting today.
