Day 2: You Are Held

Devotional

Life moves fast. The busier we get, the faster it seems to go. And somewhere in the rush, a quiet fear can creep in. What if I lose my way? What if I am not enough? What if I fall?

Jesus speaks directly to that fear. He says His sheep hear His voice, He knows them, and no one can snatch them out of His hand. Not circumstances. Not failure. Not even death.

That is not a small promise. That is everything.

If you have placed your trust in Jesus Christ, you are secure. Not because of how strong your grip is, but because of how strong His is. Your eternal place is not held together by your performance. It is held together by His power.

You are not drifting through life hoping things work out. You are held by the God of the universe, and He is not letting go. Walk into today with that confidence. His voice is still speaking, and He knows you by name.

Bible Verse

'My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.' - John 10:27-30

Reflection Question

In what area of your life do you most struggle to trust that God is holding you securely?

Quote

"If you follow Jesus Christ, if you listen to His voice, this is the reality about your eternal place. Nobody can snatch you out of it."

Prayer

Father, thank You that my security rests in Your hands and not my own. Help me to hear Your voice clearly today and to walk in the confidence that You will never let me go.
