General Manager's Comments

When the Pilgrims landed at what is now Provincetown, Massachusetts in the Fall of 1620, it was not the first time Europeans had come ashore in today's United States, for that had happened already in Jamestown, Virginia (1610) and in what is now a southern suburb of San Diego, California (1543). It was however the first documented celebration of gratitude for peace between strangers, the bounty of the harvest, and shelter and sustenance in what must have seemed an inhospitable landscape going into the winter of 1621. Keep in mind, of the 102 passengers on the Mayflower, only 51 survived the trip. But for their tenacity, and the hospitality of Wampanoag Chief, Massasoit, and 91 of his men, the Thanksgiving Feast might have been considerably smaller. Yet, the power of gratitude manifest on that day impressed all who attended, and a tradition symbolizing abundance, generosity, and above all, thanks, became a formal pillar of the new country's annual rituals. So, Park Newport wishes you a very Happy Thanksgiving and hope to see you throughout the holidays.

Happy
Thanksgiving!
