

MAE LASSLEY OSAGE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

SON SE GRAY (MAE LASSLEY), Osage Allottee #634, was the donor of the monetary gift which made these scholarships possible.

Mrs. Lassley, a full blood member of the Osage Tribe, died on September 10, 1957. Although childless, she was deeply interested in young people and their welfare and dedicated her life to working in her church and helping others.

She was co-foundress of the KLASH KAH SHE (LITTLE FLOWER) CLUB, an organization for members of the Osage tribe. The club was named in honor of St. Teresa and is dedicated to the spiritual and material work of the Church.

It is a fitting tribute to a woman who dedicated her life to her God, her Church, the Osage people and suffering humanity, that after her death she would be able to help young people get an education.

The Catholic Church has enjoyed for over a century working with the Osage tribe. Long before statehood the Church was involved in the education of Osage children. This scholarship fund gives the Catholic Church an opportunity to continue its educational work for the Osage tribe.

Bishop Edward J. Slattery, Bishop of Tulsa, has established a committee to recommend the scholarship awards.

They are:

Rev. Christopher Daigle, Fairfax
Rev. Sean Donovan, Pawhuska
Ms. Marianne Schroeder, Pawhuska

Ms. Lee Ann Ammons, Pawhuska
Mrs. Sarah Jameson, Diocese of Tulsa
