

Paul L. Moyes, Former MSC Athlete, to Coach North Muskegon High Teams

Successor to McNitt Has Been Director at Haslett

Teams Have Won Two Grid Titles, One Cage Meet; Takes Over Veterans.

North Muskegon High athletic teams this coming school year will be coached by Paul L. Moyes, former Michigan State college athlete and coach at Haslett, near Lansing, for the past three years. It was announced today by Max S. Smith, superintendent of North Muskegon schools.

Coach Moyes succeeds Lyle C. McNitt who resigned recently. Coach McNitt has been selected by Ludington High school as successor to Athletic Director Mitchell O. Reed, who resigned last Fall.

Graduating from Michigan State in 1939, Mr. Moyes was a member of the varsity football, baseball and basketball squads there. In football he was a backfield man and in basketball, a guard.

Following his graduation he started his coaching career at Haslett and has built a good coaching record. During the three years, the football team won its league title twice and in basketball, the regional tournament once. Haslett is a Class C school, like North Muskegon.

At North Muskegon this year, Mr. Moyes will have most of the letter winners back in football. Last year the Norse grid team went through the season undefeated, untied and unscored upon. In basketball only two letter winners will be missing and the 1942 varsity baseball team will be mostly intact for next spring.

In addition to coaching football, basketball and baseball teams, Mr. Moyes will teach all boys' physical education classes.

The new coach is married and has one son. His home is Cedar Springs.

G. H. Millers Beat Continental 6-1

Grand Haven, July 16—Grand Haven Millers baseball team resumed its winning ways after two consecutive defeats by winning from the Muskegon Continentals 6 to 1 at Ferry field last night.

The leading hitter was Baldus, Miller shortstop, who hit a home run and single. Bard, Continental first baseman, made several nice plays. The batteries were Blevins, Berson and Ludwig for the visitors, Robinson and Westerhof for Millers.

Cubs Try Rowdiness on Dodgers, but Lose to "Experts" by 10-5 Margin

By JUDSON BAILEY

Bad blood has been flowing between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs for two or more years in one of the most vicious feuds in baseball annals and the situation is getting stormier.

Yesterday the boys were so busy throwing bean balls at each other they almost forgot the ball game, but the Dodgers, operating in their element, captured a 10-5 verdict from the confused Cubs, who made five errors and used five pitchers to give 13 hits.

One version of the trouble between the clubs is that it started when Hugh Casey of the Dodgers threw at Pitcher Claude Passeau of the Cubs a couple of years ago. It has been kept fanned white-hot ever since with knock-down pitches, high slides, name-calling and even harsh business office relations.

Through it all Passeau has managed to keep the upper hand on the pitching mound, winning seven and losing only twice to Brooklyn—till yesterday. But the fellow who has won more games than any other pitcher this year, 13, got his bumps this time.

He was pelted for seven hits in 2 1-3 innings, giving four runs, and couldn't get the ball near the plate when Iliam Bithorn replaced him. Brooklyn turned its batting on the rookie and had him in such a frenzy, that when he, too, had to be removed in the fifth inning, he threw the ball at the Brooklyn benchwarmers.

Brooklyn was given one run when the Cubs made three errors in the fourth. The first two men up in the fifth walked, but Mickey Owen was thrown out at the plate trying to score from second on a wild pitch and PeeWee Reese was trapped between third and home on a bunt by Kirby Ilgbe, who was working for the fourth time in a week and attained his tenth victory. In spite of this the Dodgers again loaded the bases and Paul Erickson, who relieved Bithorn, made a wild pitch on his first delivery. In the sixth he dusted Billy Herman to the ground and Herman, a former Cub, got up to hit a home run on the next pitch. Lou Novikoff and Jimmie Foxx hit homers for the Cubs.

This encounter dwarfed other developments of the day in the Major leagues, although Chet Laabs of the St. Louis Browns, currently on a batting spree, attracted attention at Philadelphia by driving in five runs as the Browns beat the Athletics, 7-1, in a night game. He hit a homer, his 13th of the year, with the bases loaded in the second inning and then in the third inning lined to the corner of center field in Shibe park and was thrown out at the plate trying to get four bases on it.

The New York Yankees extended their American league lead to 6½ games by scoring their second straight shutout, 4-0, against the Cleveland Indians on the four-hit hurling of Alcy Donald. Buddy Hassett made three hits and Joe DiMaggio stretched his modest hitting streak to 12 games.

The Boston Red Sox split with the Chicago White Sox. Tex Hughson beat unlucky Ed Smith in the opener, 10-1, for Smith's 15th setback. Then the Sox took the nightcap, 11-6, although Ted Williams hit his 19th homer.

Washington nosed out the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, in 11 innings in a night game when Jimmy Pohl singled with two on for the winning marker.

Rip Sewell pitched six-hit ball and Vince DiMaggio hit a three-run double to spark Pittsburgh to a 6-2 triumph over the New York Giants. The St. Louis Cardinals swept a doubleheader from the Phils 7-3 and 9-4. The tallenders made three errors in the first game and five in the second besides letting Johnny Hopp steal home in the nightcap.

Cincinnati and the Boston Braves divided their double bill, with Bucky Walters winning the opener for the Reds, 6-2, on five-hit pitching and Manny Salvo retaliating with a seven-hit performance as the Braves bagged the second game, 7-2, with Clyde Klutts batting in three runs with a double.

Tigers Balanced Just One Contest From 2nd Division

Fourth Straight Loss Brings Browns Nine Close Newhouser to Pitch Tonight.

Washington, July 16—(P)—Still going downgrade, the Detroit Tigers are skidding on the edge of the second division after coming up with their season's longest losing streak and their worst showing to date on Eastern fields.

The Washington Senators dumped the Tigers, 4 to 3 in 11 innings, last night to run Detroit's losses to four straight and, as far as individuals were concerned, make the future for the Veteran Tommy Bridges none too bright.

Deprived of a victory for five and a half weeks, Bridges started the arc-light battle and, although not the losing pitcher, he was not the Bridges his admirers like to think about. He allowed nine hits in seven innings before departing for a pinch hitter.

It was a queer game, with plenty of runners on the bases but few making the circuit. The teams collected 27 hits, 15 by the Tigers. Twenty-four of the blows were singles, the only extra-basers being doubles by Pinky Higgins and Ned Harris and a triple by Doc

Whirlaway Sets Chart Toward New Goal Of Half Million; Passes Biscuit Mark

Victory in Suffolk Downs Classic Puts Mr. Bigtail Ahead of All-time List.

By BILL KING

Boston, July 16—(P)—A stretch-running flash of lightning known as Whirlaway today loomed as the first half-million-dollar winning prospect in the history of the turf.

Fresh from his record-smashing triumph yesterday in the Massachusetts $50,000-added handicap, Whirlly was pointed today by his trainer, Ben Jones, for the $25,000 added Arlington handicap at Chicago's Arlington park on Aug. 1.

The smashing victory that Whirlaway, owned by Warren Wright, scored in the Suffolk Downs feature boosted the horse's winnings to $151,366—$16,636 more than the previous top earnings mark, amassed by Seabiscuit.

Giving every indication that he must be considered as one of the top handicap performers of all time, Whirlly ran a field of six speedy opponents into the earth in almost nonchalant fashion under a smart ride by Georgie Woolf before a crowd of almost 33,000.

New Englanders, seeing "Mr. Bigtail" for the first time, still were pop-eyed today at the blaze of speed the champion turned on as he headed for the wire to win by about two and a half lengths over the Valdina Farms' Irish-bred Rounders.

Whirlly broke well and then gave his supporters, who had backed him down to even money, a taste of the jitters by trailing the field by a good 10 lengths for at least half the journey.

Then Woolf gave him the nod and he showed why he rates among the all-time greats. With one burst he jumped up to fourth place and in another moment he was out in front.

He roared down the stretch like a runaway locomotive and flashed across the wire in 1:48 1-5 to crack the track record for the mile and one-eighth distance, previously held by War Relic, by two-fifths of a second.

Whirlaway paid $4, $3 and $2.20. Rounders $6.60 and $3.80, and Mrs.

Parker Corning's Attention, which finished third, $3.40.

The race started out as a duel between Rounders and the Belair stud's Apache, last week's Empire City Handicap winner, which was totting only 107 pounds as against Whirlaway's top impost of 130.

Rounders led by a neck at the one-quarter pole, but at the half Apache was out in front by a length and a half.

Going into the stretch, Whirlaway popped out of nowhere to take the lead, with Attention climbing up to second place, with Rounders third. The Irish horse came on again to place and Attention beat out Apache for the show.
