North Muskegon Earns Two Spots on Mythical

Montague, Nov. 20 — First place Montague and runner-up Whitehall placed eight players on the 13-man West Michigan Conference all-star team chosen by the coaches this week.

Hart, North Muskegon and Shelby took the other five spots with Reed City and Scottville failing to place a player on the honor team.

Six backs were chosen because of tie votes for two positions. Backfield men named were: Merv Mitchell and Jay Yarwood of Whitehall, Larry Jancek and Jerry Erdman of Montague, Dale Swanson of North Muskegon and Dan Tate of Hart.

Eric Ray of Shelby and Chuck Townsend of Montague were named the top ends in the conference with North Muskegon's Dave Taylor and Whitehall's Roger Gravenood picked as the tackles.

Whitehall's Charlie O'Connell and Montague's Claud Rummer were named all-star guards with Rex Wiedman of Hart the center.

All members of the honor team are seniors with the exception of Jancek who is a junior.
