NOMINATING INSTRUCTIONS for 2026 HONORS

MUST BE RECEIVED BY January 7, 2027

Thank you for nominating a person deserving of recognition as Kennewick Man or Woman of the Year. We are honored that you would make this effort. You may nominate either a man or woman. Nominations for more than one person will not be accepted. Final selection of the Kennewick Man and Woman of the Year will be made by a panel of judges who are not previous honorees.

Anyone may submit a nomination. You don't have to live or work in Kennewick, but your nominee does. This form may be used to nominate either a man or woman. We do not accept nominations for couples.

Service is the first priority. The presenting organizations believe that public service is the most important attribute of the Kennewick Man or Woman of the Year. We recognize that many careers include community service. We honor those who have gone above and beyond the requirements of the job.

Majority of service to benefit citizens of Kennewick. There is no requirement that the nominee give service only in the City of Kennewick, just that the community service benefit the citizens of Kennewick. Your nominee must either live or work in the City of Kennewick.

Keep it confidential. One of the delightful elements of these honors is that the honoree rarely knows of the nomination and is generally guessing along with the rest of the audience before the name is announced. Please be discreet in gathering background information.

Keep it brief. Overlong nominations may be returned for editing.

No additional information. Please note that the information you provide on the Nomination Form is the only information used in the selection process. It is up to you to help make your nominee come alive to the judges. You may quote others in your narrative..
